

Courtroom Shifts—An 'Ify' Subject

By FRANK LAPIERRE

Once those two new superior court judges are appointed by Governor Reagan (hopefully by November 8) Superior Court Judge Frank Blum is expected to shift his offices from Redwood City up to the North County — into the South San Francisco City Council Chambers and not the present SSF Courthouse.

The move is expected only IF there is no room for him at the Northern Judicial District Court Building.

Truth is, The Post has learned the SSF council chambers have been previously offered as an interim Superior Court and officials of that city have promised to make every effort to facilitate the court (i.e., scheduling city meetings around court cases, etc.).

There are so many "IFs" attached to the subject of municipal and superior courtrooms and judges in the North County that most judges are shying away from any further comment on the subject. At least one judge said recently, "I'm throwing up my hands on the whole affair."

Exploration of some of these "IFs" discloses that IF the so-called Old Daly City Hall on Wellington Avenue is found by the Board of Supervisors to be unsuitable for a municipal courtroom, primarily because of excessive refurbishing costs, the court (earlier promised to Daly City by the supervisors) will likely remain where it is — at the NJD court building in South San Francisco.

And IF this is the case, the three-courtroom facility will have its capacity load of three municipal judges, thereby squeezing out any possibility of establishing the Superior Court there.

There are also rumors circulating throughout the area that County Director of Building Construction Henry Tarratt thinks any refurbishing costs over $10,000 are excessive for the Wellington Avenue building because the county will still be required to pay monthly rental for the use of the structure on top of the refurbishing costs — and all for something the City of Daly City owns.

Some Municipal judges, who would probably hold court in Daly City on a rotation basis, have expressed less than an enthusiastic response to the idea of trying "certain types" of cases there.

(A report on which type of cases to be heard in Daly City, along with the frequency of holding court, was expected to be submitted by the State Judicial Council soon for review by the Board of Supervisors.)

Contacted last week, Judge Blum said he had talked the entire court matter over with other judges "and we all agree to sit anywhere they want us to sit, at least until something can be worked out — even if we have to sit in a cigar store."

He said the people of the North County were made a promise regarding the courtrooms and the feeling of the judges is that this promise should be carried out.

But the matter is no longer a simple cut and dry case of establishing a municipal courtroom in Daly City and expanding facilities in South San Francisco to provide for a superior court at the present NJD courthouse location.

The matter has, in the words of some local politicians, turned into a "political football," with teams running with the same ball in opposite directions.

IF the county decides the Wellington Avenue location is suitable as an interim courtroom on a full-time basis, the Superior Court could move into the NJD facility until expansion is completed — probably sometime late next year.

However, IF the supervisors decide against the immediate establishment of a municipal court in Daly City and vote to wait for construction of a joint city-county-school district building (adjacent to the present Civic Center), Daly City will have a long wait for its municipal court.

Supervisor Jean Fassler favors the latter, while Supervisor Robert St. Clair has expressed the opinion that the Wellington Avenue building should be used if the waiting period for a new structure in Daly City exceeds two years and the costs of refurbishing the structure do not exceed $25,000.

St. Clair, however, has cautioned that a "wait and see" attitude should be pursued, apparently referring to the State Judicial Council findings on the matter.

On the subject of construction of a County Service Center, which would house certain county agencies along with Jefferson Union High School District administration offices, the matter becomes even more muddled, observers note.

A lot depends on how far the school district can enter into a joint powers agreement with the county.

Both the city and school district own several lots in the area adjacent to the Civic Center. IF an agreement can be reached, and IF the school, city and county can enter into a joint powers agreement, construction could possibly begin in the not too distant future.

What type of services the county will provide for the North County also remains "up in the air" and awaiting a report from County Mgr. E. Robert Stallings.

About the only thing that is certain regarding both the municipal and superior court, plus the county service center, is that they will be established — where and when remains a critical question left unanswered by all involved.

13 Seek 2 Court Positions

Thirteen San Mateo County attorneys and two Municipal Court judges have submitted their names to the County Bar Association as candidates for the two new Superior Court judgeships to become effective next month.

The judges are Charles Becker of South San Francisco and Roy W. Seagraves of Menlo Park.

The lawyers are Hugh Mullin Jr. of San Mateo, Conrad Reich of South San Francisco, Howard Gawthrop of Redwood City, Benjamin Knight of San Mateo, Allison Rouse of Redwood City, Robert Carey of Atherton, Thomas Paige of San Carlos, Jack Robertson of Menlo Park, William Lanam of Burlingame, Lemuel Summey of Portola Valley, Louis Francis of San Mateo, Nick Elchinnoff of Burlingame and Maurice K. Hamilton of San Bruno, Gawthrop, Rouse, Carey, Summey and Lanam are deputies in the district attorney's office.

O. A. Goth, president of the bar association, said the list of qualified attorneys will be submitted to Governor Reagan, who will make the appointments.

Reagan has declared that his judicial appointments will be (Please See Page 2, Column 1)

County Asks S.S.F. Bay Fill Screen

An informal approach to South San Francisco officials about screening the newest bay fill project at Sierra Point was decided on yesterday by the County Board of Supervisors.

Supervisor Robert St. Clair, who brought the matter up, pointed out that a new area is being diked off south of the garbage dump near the Brisbane turnoff.

"This is right opposite the highway," St. Clair said, "and much closer than the garbage dump. This operation will be readily seen by all traffic going into the city."

PROPOSED CIVIC SIGNBOARD—Daly City engineer Art Reschke (left) and U. R. "Jack" Kendree of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce unveiled a proposed civic organization signboard during a recent meeting of the board of directors. Kendree, chairman of the chamber's Sign Committee, said a suitable location on Skyline Boulevard near the Olympic Club had been located for construction of the signboard. The question of where to erect the sign had been pending for some time and was unanimously approved by the directors at the urging of president John Wuerthner.

TWO COUNTY ENTRIES

Pacifica Gets Miss California Franchise

Pacifica has won its battle for a Miss California franchise, and San Mateo County will have two entrants in the statewide beauty pageant next year.

Stan VanderHule, chairman of a chamber of commerce committee that has diligently sought the beauty pageant franchise for more than two years, reported the Miss California agent directors ruled in favor of the franchise Monday.

The new franchise means the county's chances of winning the annual competition at Santa Cruz, and the ultimate "Miss America" title in Atlantic City, will be doubled.

Directors of the Miss San Mateo Pageant, previously the only beauty pageant in the county franchised by the state pageant organization, have vigorously opposed the Pacifica franchise, and spoke against it in hearings before the state pageant directors.

VanderHule and other civic leaders argued that the Pacifica pageant is a high quality presentation, and enjoys sufficient community support to warrant the local franchise.

They also pointed out that many neighboring counties with less population than San Mateo County have two or more entrants in the Miss California Pageant.

Representatives from the state pageant board of directors attended the "Miss Pacifica" Pageant last May "to see for themselves" the quality of the May 18 issue which contained several articles on sex and a said, and this week's decision was based largely on their evaluation of the show.

The Miss Pacifica pageant, held annually for the past 11 years, has attracted crowds of more than 2,000 each year, and is generally considered one of the best local productions of its type.

Officials of the Miss San Mateo County pageant have argued in the past that the "one-pageant" system in the county provided superior talent, and "therefore increased the area's chances of winning the state competition and providing an entrant in the Miss America competition."

S.F. STATE PAPER

New D.C. Chamber Attack Unleashed

The subject of San Francisco State College's underground newspaper "Open Process" was brought up again during Thursday's Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce directors' meeting.

Two months ago the Board labeled the publication "out and out smut" and had directed chamber manager Peter Markovich to send letters to elected officials in Sacramento indicating the chamber's stand on the matter.

What prompted the chamber's action was the publication's May 18 issue which contained several articles on sex and a photograph of a reclining nude on the cover.

In reply to Markovich's letter, Governor Ronald Reagan said he agreed with the chamber regarding the "smut publication."

"I feel there is no legitimate reason for the publication of this type of newspaper at our state colleges," Reagan said.

The governor said Dr. Glenn S. Dumke, Chancellor of California State Colleges, had assured him an investigation of the publication was presently underway.

Westlake Center Fire Rescue Demonstration

Daly City firemen will present a rescue demonstration Thursday and Friday in the Westlake Shopping Center parking lot.

Firemen will "rescue" two persons from a model house filled with smoke.

A department spokesman said a smoke bomb will be detonated inside the house, a miniature dwelling constructed for school demonstrations, and a hook and ladder truck will be used in the simulated rescue.

The demonstration is being conducted in observance of "Fire Prevention Week."

Last week was "Fire Prevention Week," but the parking area was not available until this week, firemen said.

The demonstrations will take place at 2 p.m. each day.

The demonstrations will be preceded by performances of the Sal Carson's "Fire-lad Five Dixie-land Band."

Wall-Raising Rites Set For College

Buildings for San Mateo Junior College District's new Skyline College in San Bruno are ready to start taking shape against the sky and, to celebrate the occasion, a public "wall-raising" ceremony will be held on the site at 3 p.m., Sunday, October 22.

"We know the citizens of San Bruno, Pacifica, South San Francisco, Bayshore City, Brisbane, Colma and Daly City are eagerly awaiting the opening of this new college in the fall of 1969," said Carl E. Ward, president of the district board of trustees, "and we hope they will join us on Sunday to see, and to celebrate, the construction progress that is being made."

Setback For D.C. On Court

That full-time municipal court promised to Daly City by the County Board of Supervisors less than a month ago may be a long time in coming.

Cost of refurbishing the Old City Hall building, coupled with legal red tape concerning a joint powers agreement between the county, city and Jefferson High School District, is being blamed for the possible delay in establishing the court.

Supervisor Jean Fassler, while maintaining "there are no plans to pull the court out of Daly City" frankly admitted yesterday she could not say when the facility would begin operation in that North County city.

City officials had anticipated using the old city hall on Wellington Avenue as an interim court site until a new county service center — complete with two courtrooms and space for school district offices — could be constructed adjacent to the new Civic Center starting next month.

The city had previously offered to pay the cost of repainting and cleaning up the old structure, a spokesman said.

But cost estimates made on refurbishing the "old" structure have ranged from $5,000 for painting and general cleanup, to more than $50,000 for complete remodeling of the interior to make it suitable for all types of courtroom cases.

Mrs. Fassler said cost of this refurbishing "would depend to a large extent on the type of cases and the frequency of use" and has asked the State Judicial Council for recommendations in the matter.

A report from the council was expected later this week.

During a regular supervisors' meeting in Redwood City last Tuesday, Supervisor Jim Fitzgerald told the board it might be better to take a wait-and-see stand "before sending $50,000 to $60,000 down the drain" on remodeling the old building.

At least two municipal judges have expressed mild opposition to establishment of a full-time court in the present old city hall and have suggested the court (Please See Page 2, Column 4)

Reagan had submitted to the last legislature a Judicial Selection Act designed to assure that politics would be kept out of the selection of judges. It did not pass but the governor said he will re-submit the bill until it is passed.

In the meantime, he is using an interim plan that calls for the appointment of a Judicial Selection Advisory Board in each county, normally consisting of a Superior Court judge, a bar association representative and three lay citizens. Each bar association is asked to submit a list of qualified attorneys interested in an appointment. Legislators are encouraged to submit additional names. The governor's appointments secretary, with the assistance of the advisory board, narrows the list down to a few finalists, usually three to eight, from which the appointments are made.

Lewis Frucht, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Frucht, will be Bar Mitzvah at 10 a.m. Saturday at Congregation B'nai Israel in Colma.

The Broadmoor Police Protection District is seeking a patrolman, with closing date for application October 31, according to Police Chief Ray Savage. Applicants must be between 21 and 35 years of age and San Mateo County residents who would be required to live in the Daly City-Colma area within a year after appointment. remain at its present location in South San Francisco until completion of the new facility in Daly City.

The South San Francisco courtroom complex is slated for immediate expansion to provide additional courtroom, including a superior court.

"We just don't want to throw away the taxpayers' dollars on excessive refurbishing costs coupled with monthly rental charges on the building," Mrs. Fassler said.

However, supervisor Robert St. Clair said if these costs did not exceed $25,000, and the new structure would not be ready for use for another two years, he would favor use of the old city hall as an interim court.

St. Clair said a decision on the matter at this time "would be premature" and suggested waiting for cost estimates from County Director of Building Construction Henry Tarratt.

Tarratt had earlier been instructed to make a study of refurbishing costs at the old city hall.

The report was not expected to be submitted to the supervisors until after the State Judicial Council recommendations had been studied by Tarratt's office.

Daly City Plans Special Census

A special census was scheduled to get underway in Daly City on November 3, City Manager Edward Frank announced today.

The census will be administered by the city in accordance with specifications set forth by the State Department of Finance and under the direct supervision of a state field advisor.

All regular Daly City residents will be counted, Frank said.

Upon completion of the census, the count will serve as an updated "benchmark" for future estimates of the population. Daly City receives approximately $13 per capita in revenue from gasoline and motor vehicle property taxes.

Residents will also be asked several questions designed to provide data to be used in preparation of the city's General Plan — also presently underway.

Frank said there is a need for census takers in the community. Interested persons should apply to the Daly City Personnel Office, Civic Center.

The census is expected to require 18 calendar days and census takers will be paid $1.75 per hour, the city manager explained.

Officer Finds Marijuana In Window

A special policeman acting on a dog complaint broke up a flourishing marijuana "nursery" in a Daly City apartment last week.

During a check of Gary L. Robertshaw's apartment at 35 Poncet Avenue, special officer Henry Gross spotted several marijuana plants "soaking up the sun" in front of a bedroom window.

Gross, a veteran police officer responsible for security in the apartment house complex in Daly City, immediately summoned local detectives to the scene.

Rock Show in D.C.

Rockhounding is almost as ancient as man himself, since early implements and weapons were fashioned of rock.

An example is the making of arrowheads, a demonstration of which will be one of the features of the Daly City Rockhound's Golden Gate Gem and Miner's Show Saturday and Sunday at the War Memorial Community Center, 6555 Mission Street, Daly City.

The show will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday, and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Present day rockhounds do many things with rocks, a club spokesman points out. They hunt them, cut and polish them, make pictures, jewelry, lamps and lampshades, dishes, flatware — to mention a few.

Rockhounding, reported to be one of the leading hobbies, is a hobby that can be enjoyed by all, and in California alone there are close to 300 clubs, most affiliated with the California Federation of Mineralogical Societies, Inc.

The theme for this year's show is a "Western Roundup," and will feature gems and dealers from the Western States, with the proverbial western hospitality. Many new exhibits are planned, and the varieties of materials represented will literally be from agate to zoisite.

Affiliated clubs and individuals from near and far will display a dazzling exhibit of jewelry, pictures, hand wrought silver and gold, mosaics, interspersed, in fact, just about everything conceivable. Much of the jewelry on display will include materials collected on local field trips.

Included among the "goodies" available from the various western states will be a wide variety of agate, jaspers, jade, opal, sapphire, garnet, petrified wood, minerals and crystals.

Bike, Auto Collide, Boy Is Injured

A seven-year-old Daly City boy was injured Sunday when the bicycle he was riding collided with a passenger car on Skyline Boulevard shortly after 6:30 p.m.

Witnesses said the child, William F. Kennaugh, of 1379 Skyline, was playing with a friend on Seacrest Court and apparently rode his bicycle onto busy Skyline Boulevard into the path of the car.

Clyde McLean Bird, 27, 95 Whittier Street, San Francisco, told police he spotted the boys coming towards him and stopped his car just before the Kennaugh child ran into him.

Police are continuing their investigation of the incident, a spokesman said.

The boy was rushed to nearby Mary's Help Hospital where he was treated and released.

Meanwhile, a San Francisco man in satisfactory condition at Mary's Help Hospital with multiple lacerations and bruises after hitting a signal light on Geneva Avenue shortly after midnight Sunday.

Ernest T. Bueno, 30, of 1756 Newcomb Avenue, ran onto the island and slammed into the signal, located in the middle of Geneva Avenue, police said.

S.F. Cyclist Is Injured

A San Francisco youth was injured Friday night in a motorcycle accident on the Hickey Boulevard Extension in Daly City, a Mercy Ambulance Co. spokesman reported.

Thomas Lee, 18, was treated at Mary's Help Hospital for bruises and lacerations after he lost control of his motorcycle near the Junipero Serra Freeway overpass about 10 p.m. and skidded into an embankment.

2 Burned In Blaze In S.S.F.

A South San Francisco couple were burned Sunday when grease on a cooking stove caught fire and spread over their kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Patten of 440 Alamanor were given emergency first aid by a neighbor fireman Paul Tognetti, before being rushed to Kaiser Hospital.

A fire department spokesman said Patten suffered possible second-degree burns of the left hand and arm, while his wife received burns on the left leg.

Damage to the kitchen and its contents was estimated at $1,000 by the fire officials, who said the stove, overhead cabinets and the floor were ablaze when firemen arrived shortly after 5:12 p.m.

A little less than two hours later, Fireman Ted Lindstrom was looking out the window of the fire station's recreation room and spotted smoke puffing up from somewhere on Grand Avenue.

Equipment subsequently was rolled to 207 Grand Avenue, an Army-Navy Store, where a fire that apparently started in nearby grass had crept up a wood siding outside wall.

Damage in the 6:40 p.m. fire was confined to the exterior wall, firemen said.

Earlier in the day, the South San Francisco firemen had washed down the pump area of the Hancock service station at 20 South Linden Avenue after a gasoline pump nozzle stuck open.

Firemen pulled a fuse to stop the flow and set about to clean up the area.

Young Bruno Auto Crash Victim Dies

Murray Brown, the San Bruno kindergartner struck by a car last Friday while running across the street to Edgemont-Allan School, died last week.

Murray was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brown, 530 Cherry Avenue.

He had been listed as being in critical condition at Peninsula Hospital ever since the collision occurred at 12:30 p.m., October 6.

San Bruno police said the boy had left a car driven by Dorothy Goff, and darted across Elm Street toward the school, when the accident occurred.

He was struck down by a car being driven by Nancy Smedly, 22, 456 Beech Avenue, officers reported.

Police said today there would be no charges filed.

ker, Richmond, Bronze Star Medal and Purple Heart for son, Pfc. Michael S. Mitchell.

Mrs. Mary A. Sanders, Sebastopol, Bronze Star Medal, for their son, Sgt. William D. Blessman.

Apodak was born in San Francisco on November 15, 1947.

He enlisted in the Army at San Mateo, on March 2, 1966. Transferred to Vietnam on September 19, 1966, he was assigned to Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion, 327th Infantry, 1st Brigade, 101st Airborne Division. He was severely wounded in hostile ground action with that unit on May 15, 1967 and subsequently died in the U.S. Air Force Hospital at Clark Air Force Base, Philippines, on May 31.

He was subsequently cited in general orders for outstanding meritorious service in connection with ground operations against a hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam and has been posthumously awarded the Bronze Star Medal.

He was interred at Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, Calif., on June 9, 1967.

The Purple Heart was presented to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Fidel Apodaca, 477 Elm Street, San Bruno, Calif., at an earlier ceremony, August 10, 1967, which was also attended by Specialist Apodaca's two sisters, Nancy and Sister Dominic Savio, and his brother, Richard.

Three Caught At Scene

San Bruno police apprehended three teen-age boys Wednesday afternoon at the scene of an attempted burglary on Glenview Drive.

Jefferson Board Loses

SACRAMENTO — Officials from San Mateo County's Jefferson School District, for the second straight month, failed to appear at a State Allocations Board meeting to appeal a board decision denying state funds for the district.

Perturbed board members, led by Assemblyman Leroy Greene (D-Sacramento) voted unanimously to again deny the funds, some $3,973 which the district had requested to pay for legal fees on a condemnation action for Garden Village School.

The district had dropped plans to purchase and develop the site because it said a court ruling had favored San Mateo County on a street right-of-way acquisition.

The district had hired a private attorney rather than use county attorneys and the state had refused to pay the fee since county attorneys are normally used by school districts.

Officers said the three juveniles were apprehended and arrested in the vicinity of 960 Glenview Drive after residents of the neighborhood reported seeing them enter the home of John Benedict.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

By DONALD C. WAITE

WHEN IS A "SALE" A SALE?

With so many furniture sales being run so frequently by so many stores, customers often wonder whether these sales are legitimate and whether the alleged "mark-downs" are real.

There are many reasons why reputable stores run sales. Very often a merchant has the opportunity to buy a quantity of discontinued merchandise from a manufacturer at a great discount and is able to offer these goods to the public at a great savings.

Then, too every business acquires an accumulation of odd pieces, slightly shopworn goods, slow selling items, discontinued numbers, etc., which they would rather mark down at cost so they can replace them with fast selling goods.

However, the best way to tell whether a sale is legitimate is by the reputation and integrity of the advertiser. The public knows quite well which are the "prestige" stores in their community, and which are not.

While it is always a great temptation to pick up a bargain, it must be remembered that it is only a bargain if you like it and can use it. Everyone has an accumulation of things in the attics or closets of their homes which were purchased simply because they were bargains.

But if you are able to pick up a marked down item on sale at a reputable store, and it is something you really love and will use in your home, then you have really saved money.

More Yum-Yum Cookie Recipes

Good morning, good cooks.

Last week's column ended with the promise of more cookie recipes to come. Since I make a determined effort to live up to my promises, here they come.

This first recipe is a soft, chewy and most delicious brownie. But instead of the usual chocolate variety, it's butterscotch.

1 cup flour
1-3 cup brown sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1-3 cup soft butter
¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift together the one-cup flour, one-third cup brown sugar and one-fourth teaspoon salt in a bowl. Add the one-third cup butter and mix with a fork. Stir in the one-fourth cup milk and one-teaspoon vanilla. Bake in a lightly buttered 8-inch square pan at 400-degrees for 15 minutes. Remove from oven and spread with the following topping.

1 egg separated
¼ cup milk
1½ cups brown sugar
½ cups chopped nuts

Mix the one egg yolk, one-fourth cup milk, one and one-fourths cups brown sugar and one-half cup nuts. Spread over the top of the hot cake and return to 350-degree oven for 30 minutes. Cut in squares. Cool before removing from pan.

LAST YEAR we had an interesting collection of carrot cakes recipes, contributed by you good and generous cooks. And just last week while looking through a cookbook compiled by members of the OES Chapter in Yokohama, Japan, I found this recipe for carrot cookies. They sounded good and are good as are the other recipes I've tried from this interesting book.

CARROT COOKIES

1 cup shortening
¾ cups sugar
1½ cups grated raw carrots
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 egg, well beaten
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt

Cream the one-cup shortening, add the three-fourths cup sugar and cream again. Add the one and one-half cups grated carrots, one egg and blend well. Sift together three and one-half cups flour, one-half teaspoon salt, two teaspoons baking powder and one-fourth teaspoon salt. Combine with the creamed mixture and mix well. Drop by spoonful on greased cookie sheet and bake in 400-degree oven 10 to 12 minutes.

Makes about four dozen delicious and colorful cookies.

I THINK most everyone loves a cookie that has a filling of fruit. Raisins, dates, apricots all add interest and flavor to cookies. This next recipe is for a date-filled cookie that's crunchy with nuts and spicy with cinnamon. Sound good? They are!

DATE DROPS

1 cup shortening
2 cups brown sugar, packed
3 eggs
½ cup water
1 teaspoon vanilla
3½ cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon cinnamon

In large mixing bowl cream the one-cup shortening and two cups brown sugar. Beat in 3 eggs, stir in the one-half cup water and one-teaspoon vanilla. Sift together the two cups flour, one teaspoon cinnamon, two one-teaspoon soda and one-eighth teaspoon cinnamon. Drop by teaspoon onto ungreased baking sheet. Place one-half teaspoon filling on dough, cover with one-half teaspoon dough.

Bake in 375-degree oven 10 to 12 minutes. Makes five to six dozen.

DATE FILLING

2 cups dates, cut small
¾ cup sugar
¾ cups water
½ cup chopped nuts

Combine the two cup dates, three-fourths cup each sugar and water in saucepan. Cook together until thick, stirring constantly. Add one-half cup chopped nuts. Cool.

BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR involves many things. Besides the obvious things, such as not kicking your neighbor's dog, turning the water on her children or flirting with her husband, it's nice to be willing to help out in emergencies. Just recently my friend and neighbor, Audre Niebolt, who lives at 70 Baldwin Avenue here in Daly City, asked me to loan her a spring-party for which she was preparing cheesecakes and having only one spring-form pan. Naturally I was quick to comply with her request and this good-neighbor policy paid immediate and delicious dividends. She returned the pan with a generous slice of chocolate cheese cake, Yum. Plus some bourbon ball cookies.

When I tasted these gems I knew I had to have the recipes to share with you good cooks. Audre, good cook that she is, was glad to give them to me. And here they are for you.

BOURBON BALLS

2½ cups vanilla wafer crumbs
1 cup powdered sugar
2 Tablespoons cocoa
1 cup chopped walnuts
3 Tablespoons white syrup
¼ cup bourbon

Combine the two and one-half cups crumbs with the one-cup sugar, two tablespoons of cocoa. Add the three tablespoons syrup and one-cup chopped walnuts. Mix well. Chill. Roll into balls and roll in powdered sugar.

YW's World Tea Slated

Young Women's Christian Association members around the world, including the YWCA of San Mateo County, have set aside the second week of November (Nov. 12-18) for the celebration of World Fellowship, a century old observance.

The week-long event will be launched nationally with the annual World Fellowship Observance in the Washington, D.C. Cathedral November 12.

In San Mateo County, the YWCA will sponsor a World Fellowship Tea, on October 21, at 1 p.m., at the Burlingame Women's Club, 241 Park Drive, Burlingame. Featured at the tea will be table decorations and favors for holidays and special occasions.

Tea chairman, Mrs. Edward Raymond of South San Francisco, announced these names of her committee members: Mrs. James Lasky of San Francisco, Mrs. A. Ammerman of Burlingame, Mrs. Raymond Peters, Mrs. Gerald Williams and Mrs. Arthur St. Peter of Daly City.

Advance reservations may be made at the YWCA office, 375 South Mayfair, Daly City, or tickets may be purchased at the door.

A highlight of the activities in the nation's capital will be the traditional gift-bringing ceremony in which 50 teen-age members of the YWCA representing each state in the union, will participate.

Webster P-TA To Meet Today

Classroom Visitation is on today's 8 p.m. agenda for Daniel Webster P-TA's first unit meeting of the fall semester.

According to the program chairman, Mrs. Franz Glen, Mrs. L. Bostwick and her teaching staff will be introduced and there will be time allowed for visiting the teachers in their classrooms.

Daniel Webster P-TA president Mrs. Earl Hall will introduce Executive Board members.

The Webster P-TA will hold its annual carnival October 28 from 1-7 p.m.

There will be food for lunch and dinner, plus snacks and soft drinks, as well as a cake booth.

Games will consist of pitch games, fish bowl, clown and tootsie pop toss, tic-tac-toe, grab bag, and the old favorite, gorilla shoot.

This year, as an added attraction, the P-TA will have a fortune teller.

THESE ABRAHAM Lincoln School students teamed up to tell most of the story: That the Daly City Abraham Lincoln School Parent-Teachers Association will sponsor a carnival Saturday with "food-fun-games" in store for those who attend, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Welding the signs are (left to right, kneeling) Joey Schoepp and Traci Hurlow; (standing) David Falk, Elizabeth Rodrio and Judy Jensen.

Bonsai Exhibit Is Slated for S.M.

The San Mateo Bonsai Club will hold its first Autumn Bonsai Exhibit at the new Central Park Recreation Hall and Cultural Center, Saturday, October 21, from 12 noon to 9 p.m. and Sunday, October 22, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. The exhibit will be open to the public without charge.

The local Bonsai Club is following in the footsteps of the older Peninsula Bonsai Club, to which many of the members belong, in that they will serve tea to the visitors and will give away some 60 bonsai plants as door prizes.

Although barely a year old, the San Mateo Bonsai Club has over 60 members. Leader and instructor for the Club is Sadao Sugimoto, curator of the beautiful Japanese Garden in Central Park which is winning national acclaim for its authenticity. Each of the members is expected to show two of their prized specimens at the coming show. Each specimen plant will be groomed to its finest degree of perfection as it must please the critical eye of the instructor as well as the public. Some of the older bonsai growers will display more than two plants so the public will find some 150 exhibits on display.

Visitors in the Bonsai Exhibit will also have a chance to enjoy the lovely planting in front of the Cultural Center that ties this area to the Japanese Garden. Much of the labor for this planting was donated by members of the Bonsai Club. Money for the landscaping was donated by the Garden Study Club of the Peninsula from their Civic Beautification Fund.

- .. WHEN ROY ARCHIBALD was elected to San Mateo City Council in 1957 the municipal property tax rate was $1.22. In 1967 this had been cut to 81 1/5¢.
- .. SAN MATEO CITY has broadened its tax base . . . today, about ONE-FOURTH (22.8 per cent) of all local tax revenues come from sources OTHER than the property tax! (See TIMES news clipping, this page).
- .. SAN MATEO CITY spends MORE for Police and Fire ($29 per capita) than the median for 24 other cities in a recent study of efficiency in local government.
- .. SAN MATEO CITY has a bonded indebtedness of only $93 per capita, and is bonded only to 16 per cent of total capacity as a result of prudent fiscal policies in local San Mateo City government.

—SAN MATEO TIMES, September 14, 1967

A Financial Look At City of San Mateo.

★ Roy Archibald ★

LEGISLATIVE EXPERIENCE:

National Legislative consultant to the National Education Association, 1958-1964 • West Coast representative, NEA, 1964 to 1967 (currently on leave) • Has worked with members of the California Congressional delegation, Democrats and Republicans, on matters affecting education for young people and adults, and legislation involving community cooperation in educational projects — Elected to San Mateo City Council, 1957 • Mayor of San Mateo, 1962 (twice served as vice mayor) • Closely identified with development of the Hillsdale Traffic Interchange, dredging of the Marina Lagoon, city-wide street tree-planting program, negotiation of the Sister City agreement with Toyonaka, Japan, and many other governmental activities.

General Plan studies are producing some interesting facts about San Mateo. The latest were reported to the city Planning Commission Tuesday in a "Summary of Financial Data" undertaken by Assistant Planner Wayne Swan. It shows: "Compared with six cities in San Mateo County that have less than 50,000 people and 18 California cities with 50,000 to 125,000 population in 1966 the city of San Mateo: Had an assessed valuation of nearly $4,000 per capita, second only to Palo Alto which has $4,600. The 25-city range was $1,116 to $4,622. Their median assessed valuation per capita was $2,123. San Mateo, he reports, also had an "enviously low tax rate of .812-cents per $100 assessed value. The 25-city range was .48-cents to $2.78; the median tax rate being $1.23. Comparable size cities had higher tax rates. Those with lower tax rates were: Palo Alto, .80; San Carlos, .8115; Belmont, .48. "The city's bonded indebtedness was $93 per capita. The average of 16 comparable size California cities was $101 per capita. Only 16 percent of its total bonding capacity is in use. The 25-city average is 24 percent, and for the 16 cities with 50,000 to 100,000 people the average bonding capacity in use was 31 percent. "Sales and use taxes account for 22.8 percent of total general city tax revenue. The 25-city average was 20.7 percent; the 16-city median was 20.8 percent. They ranged from Alameda with 10 percent to South San Francisco with 31.6 percent of total general city revenue. "Total General City Revenue per capita from taxes and subventions is generally less than that of other California cities. In 1966, San Mateo, reports Swan, had a total General City Revenue of $82 per capita. The 25-city average was $95 per capita and the 16-city median was $92. "Current Service charges per capita was $5.80 compared with the 25-city median of $9.27. "And, total general city expenditures per capita were less than that of other California cities. In 1966, San Mateo had a total General City Expenditure of $82 per capita. The 25-city average was $88 and the 16-city median was $90. The General City Expenditures per capita were near the 25-city medians for general government, library, parks and recreation. But, the city spends more for public safety—police and fire—$29 per capita compared with a median of $25; and it spends less for public works—streets, sewers, etc.—$20 per capita compared with a median of $24. Further, the city spent .96-cents per capita for the planning commission, which is close to both the average and median for the 16 cities to which it was compared having the population of between 50,000 and 100,000 people. The 16-city average expenditure for planning commissions was .96-cents per capita. But, if Daly City, which spends only 16-cents per capita, is excluded, Swan noted the 15-city average expenditure for planning was $1.04 per capita, or .06-cents more than San Mateo spends.

ROY ARCHIBALD SPEAKS OUT ON:

LONG, HOT SUMMERS:

The long, hot summers must be cooled off. We should act—not react. And we should place the emphasis for constructive action at the LOCAL level, not in Washington or Sacramento. Our tremendous capital school plants, where we have such a tremendous investment, can be placed into operation throughout the summer months. There must be training for youth and jobs. The nine-month school program was founded on an agricultural economy which no longer exists. May I emphasize that local problems must be solved at the local level. Law and order is the first need, but beyond this we must look at basic causes.

PROPERTY TAX RELIEF:

I support Walter Heller's plan for return of a share of the federal income tax. This should be refunded to the states—without strings. When local government can broaden its tax base, placing less reliance on the overworked property tax, only then can local government cope with the problems of growth, development, slums, mass transit, health needs, etc. The school tax represents the largest portion of the local property tax load. It is in this area that taxation relief is so urgently needed. But federal tax rescinding must be without strings, if such a program is to be accepted by 11th Congressional District residents.

FREeways, ROADS:

We should seek earliest possible construction of the East-West 19th Avenue Freeway from San Mateo to Half Moon Bay and Route 186, from San Bruno to Pacifica. San Mateo County is one of the richest of all counties, yet we receive only token returns from the federal gas tax (Interstate Highway System and Primary Roads program). Federal gas tax revenues should go where the people and cars are—not into the wilds of Wyoming and North Dakota.

AIRPORT:

San Francisco International Airport is in the midst of a swing to air freight transportation to the Orient and Southwest Pacific areas. Formerly, deep-bottom ships handled this traffic. The airport must be assured of orderly expansion to meet growing demands placed upon it. The Federal Aviation Authority (FAA) must have the power to set standards on jet engines design and acceptable jet engine noise levels.

COOPERATION:

Task forces made up of labor, management and interested citizens from San Mateo County's economic and conservation interests should be established to work closely with the 11th District Congressman and members of the State Senate and Assembly in order that all views can be heard as our area moves dynamically ahead. Primary task force organizations should include (1) S.F. International Airport; (2) Construction Industry; (3) Electronics Industry; (4) Retail Trade; (5) Organized Labor and (6) General Corporate Enterprises — Large and Small business divisions.

CONSERVATION:

We must preserve our natural environment. This means proper local planning, coupled with effective approaches by the federal government for matching funds for local acquisition of parks, beaches, and open space.

S.S.F. 'C's' Down Westmoor, 51-42

South San Francisco's lightweight basketball teams won a vital series when they downed the Westmoor Rams 51-42 in "C" competition and 53-34 in "D" play on the S.S.F. court last week.

Ken Halligan, with 18 points, and George Hart with 17, led the Warriors to victory. High men for the Rams was Brad Quanstrom who chalked up 13 points.

In the "C" division the Rams could not break through the press, which resulted in a 51-42 loss to South City. Coach Tony Giammona commented that the Rams threw away 13 bad passes, and put through two free throws, compared to the Warriors 15 free throws.

Dan Coffee led the team for Westmoor with a total of 16 points. Mike Miller with 16 points, and Paul Sawyer with 15 led the Warriors to Victory.

Two days later the Ram "C's" bounced back to win a thriller over the El Camino Colts by a score of 39-37, while the Ram's "D's" lost their third game in four starts by a score of 24-52.

In the "C" contest both quintets fought a nip-and-tuck battle. The Colts led 34-35 with Smith connected for two points and was fouled in the process. He made the free throw.

Seconds later Smith, who was Ram high point man with 16, scored again to put the Rams ahead 39-35. With less than five seconds left in the game, the Rams deliberately avoided stopping the last Warrior shot, so no foul could be called.

Falcons Need Ban Against Vikes' Barr

The Mills High School Vikings maintained their lofty status atop the Mid Peninsula League football standings Friday utilizing an execution that may be lethal to the rest of the pack.

The Vikes, behind the running of swift halfback Mike Barr, scored a 33-12 rout of Crestmoor that was never close after Mills moved out to a 20-0 lead in the opening quarter.

Barr was the biggest offensive thorn in the side of the San Bruno gridders, scoring three times on runs of eight and 35 yards and on an 18-yard pass from quarterback John England.

England also tossed a 60-yard scoring aerial to Phil Cleak and the Vikes got their final touchdown on a 13-yard run by Mike Cowan.

Crestmoor, never in the contest after early in the first period, scored on an impressive, 60-yard run by Glenn Grossman and on a three-yard smash by Juris Dumps.

The victory gave Mills a 2-0 record in league competition and 3-1 overall mark. It was Crestmoor's second loss in MPL play and squared the Falcons' overall mark at 2-2. Mills is tied with San Mateo and Cap for first place in the MPL Standings.

Rams Replacing SSF as Leading NPL Contenders

The way things look right now, this could be the year the Westmoor High School Rams end South San Francisco's domination of the North Peninsula League. And with a surprise announcement Friday before the Jefferson game, that possibility could be extended over the next two years.

Junior Jim Lewis isn't a junior, that is. The NPL eligibility committee has ruled that Lewis is a sophomore, having transferred to Westmoor at mid-year, and therefore has two full seasons after this year at halfback for the Rams.

Mustangs Make Debut a Dandy

By CRAIG BECKHEYER
Post Sports Writer

Capuchino High School, defending champion in the Mid Peninsula League, has firmly stepped forward as the team to beat in this year's title chase as well.

Playing under the lights at Burlingame Friday night, the Mustangs did everything right in their league debut to completely dismember the host Panthers 49-6. It marked the Steeds' fourth straight win against all comers.

Burlingame, playing its first contest under acting head coach Bob Booker following last week's sudden resignation by Bob Lightcap, was never in this one.

"Well you've got to start somewhere," commented the likable Booker in the aftermath of the one-sided battle. "We didn't expect them to be that strong, but they burned us in the secondary."

And burn them they did. With quarterback Mike Aguzin completing seven of 14 passes for 110 yards and 3 touchdowns and with the Cap defensive secondary intercepting seven (that's right, seven) Blingum aerials, the hapless Cats were completely out of it by half-time.

Everyone got in the act for the loaded Mustangs. Halfback Dan Mahle started the avalanche of touchdowns with 6:52 left in the first period on a one-yard plunge, and then the scoring barrage began.

In the second frame Aguzin connected with Dennis Diestler on a 28-yard scoring sortie and then found Mitch Goldstein from 11 yards out three minutes later.

Burlingame's high point in the game came shortly thereafter when Don Lamb and Harry Wallace combined on a perfectly executed 62-yard touchdown play to make the tally 21-6 at the half.

After the intermission, however, Capuchino just kept bombing away. In the third quarter Aguzin went to the air again with blasted Jefferson, 52-0, to remain perfect at 2-0 in league play. And sophomore Lewis led one of the best-balanced attacks Pete Matisi has been able to generate on the hilltop school.

Scoring seven points in the first and last period and 19 in each of the middle quarters the Rams completely dominated their cross-Daly City rivals with fullback Bob Himm, quarterbacks Joel Carrara and Bruce Russell, and a veiny of strong running ends virtually scoring at will.

Himm was the only one to score twice, on runs of 10 and six yards, as five running backs totaled up 241 yards on the ground with Russell and Carrara tossing two touchdown passes each and gaining 323 yards in the air.

Himm's 10-yarder came first and was followed by a nine-yard loss from Russell to tight end Gary Soules, a solid bet for All-League honors.

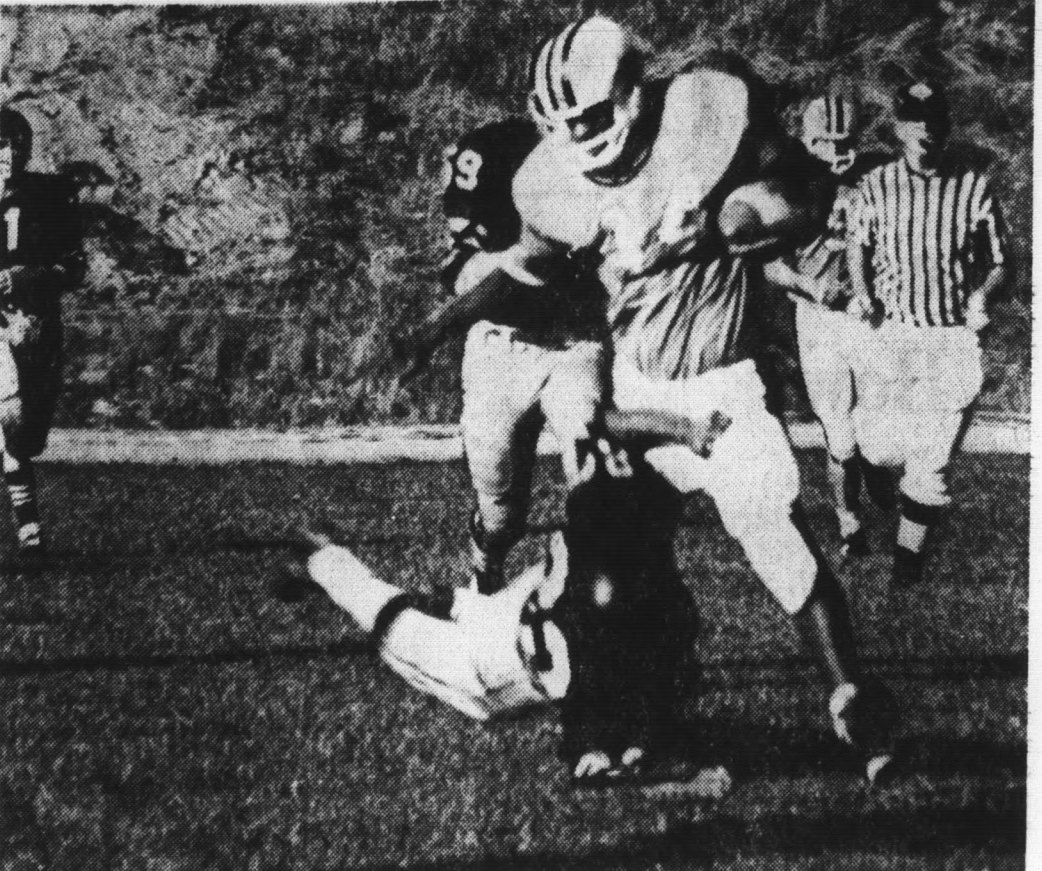

Then Himm ran in his second score in the second period and a spectacular 86-yard bomb from Carrara to end Gil Noemich before intermission put the game away for the Rams.

Russell got his bomb in the third period when he tossed 64 yards to Lewis to open the Westmoor festivities in the third period. Then Grant Easley took another Russell toss for 63 yards and Jeff was buried under but good.

The best the Indians could manage was 40 yards from fullback Charles Lockett, a huge runner, who gained 40 yards in 12 tries. Meanwhile, Lewis got 84, Himm 62 and Larry Gambol 59 to head the potent Ram attack.

"We feel we have the momentum now," smiled Matisi. "We are really looking forward to that shot at the Warriors. Our running and passing game has started to jell and if we can keep up the strong work we will be awfully tough to beat."

Matisi couldn't pick out any offensive player. "They all played so well," he said. "Bob Abbott, defensive linebacker, played a whole of a game for us. The whole defensive unit was ready and I hope they stay that way from here on out."

COUGAR HALFBACK Tony Lampkins, Number 44, ran up 130 yards last week in sparking the Half Moon Bay footballers to their first North Peninsula League victory over Terra Nova, bringing their win total this season to three. (Post Photo)

Cinderella Cougar Team 'Squeaks By' Terra Nova Tigers

At the start of the 1967 football campaign not many North Peninsula League rooters thought that Half Moon Bay High School would be able to win even one game this year.

Even fewer gave them a chance for two wins. No one ever thought that after four games the Cougars would be the only undefeated team in the conference. But after Friday's day's 20-19 squeaker over Terra Nova that's exactly the position Jerry Murphy's charges find themselves in.

Half Moon Bay has racked up a 3-0-1 record so far and is 1-0-1 in NPL play. Coming from behind in the final six minutes of play the Cougars dumped favored Terra Nova for their first league victory ever in the NPL.

Both teams had six points by halftime. The Tigers score on an eight-yard pass from quarterback Jess Bonner to end Bob Achziger. HMB came through when Calvin Harris plunged two yards for its td.

Terra Nova apparently iced the game in the third period with 13 points on another pass from Bonner to Achziger, good for 45 yards, and still another 52-yard Bonner aerial to Clancy Smith but the Cougars' Tony Lampkins, one of the most versatile backs in the league, threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to Gene Mullins to keep the Cougars close.

Then HMB started a 95-yard march in 16 plays that ended when Jerry Mullins threw 11 yards to Doug Goetz for the tying score. Lampkins then took the PAT into the end zone unopposed with just three minutes left to score the winning point.

Lampkins ran up 130 yards in 17 carries to head the Cougar offense which managed 322 yards total.

Half Moon Bay	0	0	7	20-19
Terra Nova	0	0	6	13-0-1

Scoring: HMB - Harris 2 yd. run (run failed); G. Mullins 27 yd. pass from Lampkins (Goetz pass from J. Mullins); Goetz 11 yd. pass from J. Mullins (Lampkins run); Achziger 8 yd. pass from Bonner (Bonner run); Smith 52 yd. pass from Bonner (Bonner run); Smith 52 yd. pass from Bonner (run failed).

According to Bulldog mentor, Cliff Giffin, this weekend's test will be San Mateo's crucial game of the 1967 season to date: "Diablo Valley is the team to beat right now. If we can stop their passing we can win. They have a great passer and some fine receivers."

Chances are, however, if CSM continues to get more sterling defensive efforts out of its stopper units, Diablo Valley may indeed fall — as did Merritt this past weekend.

San Mateo limited the hulking Thunderbirds to a miserly 163 yards total net on offense and a paltry single touchdown in routing the Oakland school.

The tone of the wild and woolly contest was set on the opening kickoff when Merritt fumbled and CSM recovered — only to fumble it right back to the T-Birds two plays later.

Then — adding insult to injury — when the visitors attempted to punt on their own ten-yard-line, Vic Ornelas charged in and blocked it out of the end zone for a quick CSM safety at 12:28 of the first period.

The Bulldogs added two scores to one for the T-Birds in the second frame and, for all practical purposes, that was the ballgame.

CSM's first TD came on a one-yard sneak by reserve quarterback, Bruce Wood; Merritt responded ten plays later for its sole score on a six-yard jaunt by its Louis Thompson. Then, on the ensuing kickoff, came the most exciting play of the contest.

Larry Page, a freshman from San Mateo High School, fielded the kick on his own 12-yard-line and raced up the north sidelines 88 yards for the second Bulldog tally.

CSM netted two more touchdowns in the second half on a three-yard run by quarterback, Fred Garrett, off a broken play and odd fumble recovery and then on a seven-yard pass from quarterback Jim Miller to end Jay Conklin with only 13 seconds left in the game.

Giffin and his aides were highly pleased again with the defense and also had high praise for the offense which finally got into gear with a balanced effort.

"I thought Fred (Garrett) threw much better today," commented Giff. Garrett, who has had his problems finding his receivers this season, had his best day with 10 completions in 18 attempts for 159 yards and only one interception.

Combined with this display of aerial marksmanship, CSM also got a total of 127 rushing yards from the talents of Al Namanny and Marty Kreidt, possibly the best one-two rushing combo in the GGC.

THREE BEAT TONY
SPRINGFIELD, N.J. — Before the 1967 U.S. Open began, Tony Manero, 1936 winner of Baltusrol where this year's event was played, felt certain his 282 score of 31 years ago would hold up.

It didn't.

Jack Nicklaus not only broke Manero's best for the four previous Opens played here but he shattered Ben Hogan's record of 276 set in 1948 at Los Angeles.

Also breaking 282 were Arnie Palmer with 279 and Don January with 281.

LE PACINI

Ready for a concept startling enough to make Ed Sullivan roll over in his grave (the fact that he isn't dead is a mere technicality), yet so classically simple that you might wonder why nobody has thought of it before?

Well, brace yourself and prepare for the worst (or, for some of you fans, the best), because this plan is so potentially lucrative that it may take us out of the column writing business.

We're going to start a national RENT-A-PLAYER corporation. This bold plan is designed to make championship stretch runs more interesting, take virtually useless athletes off the streets, and get us rich.

What we're going to do is sign all the washed-up or nearly finished athletes now or soon to be scrounging around for jobs, and put them in a common pool. As you know, most athletes don't lose everything at once. They often retain the particular skill at which they were most efficient, even if all else goes.

For instance, we'll bet that Jack Dempsey can still punch, Ted Williams still hit, and we KNOW that Lou Groza can still place kick, Hoyt Wilhelm throw a knuckleball, etc. . . .

WHAT WE'LL have is a collection of valuable specialists, and anyone who follows the contemporary sports scene — or any other professional endeavor, for that matter — knows that it's an era of specialization.

Here's how it will work:

Say the Giants are roaring down the stretch and they come into a Dodger series, and assume that the Dodgers can still bunt and run. Quite obviously what the Giants need is somebody who can handle bunts. He doesn't have to be able to do anything else, just handle bunts. So Chub Feeney calls us from his Phone Chub Feeney show and asks us for a man who can handle bunts, and we send him Ferris Fain for the three games.

The 49ers need a field goal kicker for a few games, so we rent them Ben Agajanian. The possibilities stagger the imagination.

It could get much more involved. Charley Finley, let's say, has a chance to make a big trade between his club — whatever one it may happen to be that month — and Cleveland, but Charley doesn't want to give them anything. So we make a confusing but deft deal.

We give him a long-term lease on Tito Fuentes and Jose Pagan, who revert back to us in 49 years, so that we can trade them to Cleveland, and we in turn get an option from Cleveland on Alvin Dark which we can exercise whenever Finley needs somebody to fire.

THIS SCHEME might even extend to other areas in the general sports media. For instance, a championship game is coming up and Lou Spadia knows that Bob Fouts will never be able to take the excitement. As a replacement he wants a real pro, a calm, cool, knowledgeable sports man.

We rent him Ira Blue.

This could eventually encompass all areas of business. For instance, the San Mateo Times wants a good, solid, straight, factual news reporter to cover the Shirley Temple - Temple - Temple - Temple - Temple's her name swearing in.

Easy — We give them Herb Caen.

Of course, we realize that there are a few obstacles to overcome; like inducing these people to sign with us, the breaking of contracts, certain rules changes in the area of roster changing deadlines, etc., but why let the worry of trivialities spoil such a brilliant idea?

There's only one thing that keeps us from jumping right into this project. We told our editor, Will Thomas, about it the other day, and right away he asked us if we were going to have any sports columnists in our pool who could spell and weren't completely out of their minds. . . .

WORLD SERIES EXPERTISE:

If you're searching here for any profound thoughts on the World Series, you've come to the wrong space. We exhausted profound World Series thought in 1965.

However, for what it's worth, we think Red Schoendienst's wife did a helluva rendering to the Star Spangled Banner (and was smart enough to read the words from a personal cue card), that Rico Petrocelli looks like Phil Rizzuto, and that Carl Yastrzemski should be proud of how they threw at his legs in the third game, because that's how they used to dust Mickey Mantle in his prime.

SPEAKING OF MANTLE: when he retires it will mark the end of a Yankee era, for when the Mick goes, so goes the last symbol of Yankee power.

There isn't a genuine power hitter on the Yankee farm, now. They're going for speed. Can anyone imagine the Yankees a running club? A positively obnoxious thought.

WE GOOFED last week, incidentally, in calling "play-action" a quarterback roll out. It's actually a pass off a fake running play. We thought we were kidding about modern football's affected jargon, but it turned out that we really were confused. Sorry about that, football purists.

USC's John McKay, a fine coach with a good sense of humor and enough irreverence for The Establishment (football-type) to make him our kind of man, recently punched a small hole in another or pro football's exalted rules during a Sporting News interview. The rule is that pro quarterbacks shouldn't run the ball, but McKay believes the day isn't too far off when they'll all be scrambling. Says he:

"The pro offenses are identical. You see one and you've seen them all. The first pro club that comes up with a rollout quarterback is going to turn the game upside down. And don't tell me the rolling quarterback is more likely to be injured. On the roll-out, he's usually tackled by the defensive halfbacks, the smallest men in the game. That's a lot safer than waiting for the Front Four behemoths to belt you."

TAG ENDS:

Former Terra Nova All NPL end Mike Ward is a regular defensive end for the U.S. Naval Academy prep school football team. Mike could eventually end up at Annapolis. . . . And San Francisco State Gator Quarterback Bob Toledo is having such a fantastic year passing that 12 Gators, after only four games, have been pass receivers. Five of them have caught TD passes.

SCORES of Daly City youngsters turned out at Westlake Park Saturday for the annual Punt, Kick and Pass tournament, sponsored by the Ford Motor Co. and the Daly City Recreation Department.

Tanforan Meet At Bay Meadows

By GARRY NIVER
Post Sports Writer

While the over-all horse racing picture in California is still quite dismal, the Tanforan at Bay Meadows meet gets ready this week to wrap up a successful 34-day season.

Wednesday will feature the running of the $10,000-added Lassie Stakes for two-year-old fillies, with the profitable meet concluding Saturday with the $25,000-added Tanforan Handicap.

Del Mar race track, under the new simultaneous horse racing setup, continues to lose both money and prestige as the little Fresno County Fair outdrew the so-called "big apple" meet at the seaside course Saturday. Del Mar officials have admitted losing $30,000 to $40,000 per day, and its demise could serve as an indicator for next year's Golden Gate Fields meet which will run its direct conflict with Santa Anita and Hollywood Park.

Back at Bay Meadows, Autumn Leaves, a fleet filly conditioned by young Val Kidd, looms as the favorite in Wednesday's female frosh stakes.

Horses nominated for Saturday's closing fixture include Plimenek, Strawberry Drive, Tumbling Rope, Acknowledge, Ikantoo, Ole Bob Bowers, Poona Khan, Costa Rica, Kay Cee, Estambul 2nd, Curzon, Laughing Gull, Rivet, Hanaford, and Fiesta Tango.

In Saturday's $15,000-added San Bruno Stakes, outsider Gee Beau established himself as a two-year-old of promise in western racing circles by scoring a stunning $81.20 upset as the longest priced horse in the field.

The victory was the highlight of a successful racing year for former USC track star Barney Willis, who conditions the two-year-old gelding.

New Guava Pinwheels Are Tasty

These pastries taste as good as they look.

New Guava Pinwheels

1 cup butter, at room temperature
2 packages each 3 ounces cream cheese, at room temperature
2½ cups unsifted regular flour
½ cup guava jelly
½ cup finely chopped walnuts
Cream butter and cream cheese. With a wooden spoon stir in flour; the last bit will have to be worked in with your hands. Shape into soft ball; wrap in transparent plastic wrap; refrigerate overnight. Let stand at room temperature until slightly softened. Roll out on prepared pastry cloth to an 18 by 12 inch rectangle. Beat jelly with fork to break up; spread on dough. Sprinkle with walnuts. Starting from 18-inch side, roll up like jelly roll. Cut crosswise into 36 slices ½-inch thick. Line a cookie sheet with heavy-weight foil; butter the foil. Place the pinwheels 1 inch apart on prepared cookie sheet. Bake in a 400-degree oven 15 minutes or until they turn a delicate brown. Makes 3 dozen.

Oven Rolls With Filling And a Crust

Oven-toasted sandwich rolls have a sweet filling and a crusty exterior.

Toasted Fig Rolls

Tea with Lemon or Milk
Toasted Fig Rolls
2 ounces cream, cheese, at room temperature
6 dried figs soft table variety, finely cut
¼ cup finely chopped walnuts
1 teaspoon lemon juice
½ teaspoon cinnamon
8 thin slices fresh bread, crusts removed butter, melted

In a small bowl mix together the cream cheese, figs, walnuts, lemon juice and cinnamon. With a rolling pin, slightly flatten bread slices; spread one side of slices with fig mixture. Roll up each slice in jelly-roll fashion. Wrap tightly in transparent plastic wrap; refrigerate at least 30 minutes. With pastry brush, brush outside surface of rolls with a generous amount of melted butter. Place seam side down on cookie sheet. Bake in a 450-degree oven until lightly browned—about 5 minutes. Cut crosswise in half. Serve at once. Makes 16 rolls.

STRAWBERRY CHARLOTTE RUSSE — Always popular with the family and guests.

A party dessert made with ladyfingers and strawberry Bavarian cream is so attractive to serve to guests.

Follow this recipe and you should have success. Convenient frozen strawberries are used in the dessert and for the accompanying sauce. The Russe is easy to turn out because the jelly strawberry preparation is completely covered by ladyfingers.

Should there be any of the dessert leftover, don't hesitate to store it in your freezer. The youngsters will love it in its frozen form.

STRAWBERRY CHARLOTTE RUSSE

2 packages (each 3 ounces) ladyfingers
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
2 packages (each 10 ounces) frozen sliced strawberries in syrup, thawed
1 tablespoon frozen lemon juice
¼ cup sugar
1 pint heavy cream
Line the entire bottom of a 1½-quart charlotte mold (6½ by 3½ inches) with whole ladyfingers. Now line sides of mold with whole ladyfingers, standing them upright. Trim ladyfingers if necessary.

In a small container, sprinkle the gelatin over the cold water; dissolve over very hot water.

Into a large mixing bowl turn the strawberries with their syrup, lemon juice, sugar and dissolved gelatin; stir well. Stir over cracked ice until mixture begins to thicken.

Whip 1½ cups of the cream until stiff; fold into strawberry mixture. Turn into lined mold; chill until firm.

To serve, with a small spatula carefully loosen around sides.

Gently shake pan; invert on serving plate.

Whip remaining 1 cup cream. Decorate sides of charlotte by piping whipped cream through pastry tube fitted with a star point. Make rosettes of whipped cream around outer top edge and on top. If desired, garnish with whole strawberries. Serve with Strawberry Sauce. Makes 8 servings.

Note: All of the ladyfingers and a strawberry preparation may not go into the mold; use any leftovers to make a miniature mold.

STRAWBERRY SAUCE

2 teaspoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon cold water
1 package (10 ounces) frozen whole or halved strawberries in syrup, thawed

In a small saucepan stir together the cornstarch and water until smooth. Drain syrup from strawberries into cornstarch mixture; set strawberries aside.

Over moderately low heat, cook and stir the cornstarch mixture until clear and slightly thickened. Remove from heat. Stir in strawberries. Cool. Makes about 1 cup.

Tomato Aspic Ring

Tangy tomato aspic-in-a-ring brightly welcomes luncheon guests. Dissolve 1 package (3 ounces) lime flavored gelatin in 2 cups boiling water. Add 2 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce with cheese, 2 tablespoons vinegar and 1½ teaspoons salt. Pour into 1-quart ring mold; chill until set. To serve, unmold aspic on chilled plate; wreath with endive. Fill center with your favorite macaroni salad. Makes 6 servings.

DELECTABLE HORS D'OEUVRE — Cheese trifles are creamy on the inside and have a deliciously crisp exterior.

Cheese Trifles Have a Big Flavor —A Wonderful Tidbit to Serve

A creamy trifle, cheese-flavored and crisp on the outside, is a wonderful tidbit to serve when you're giving a party.

We call this hors d'oeuvre by an American name, Cheese Trifles, but it stems from the French cuisine. This recipe is a two-step operation. One day you make up the cheese mixture and refrigerate overnight. The next day you turn it out, cut it up, coat and fry. Then serve to applause.

We've given you directions for frying these Cheese Trifles right after refrigeration overnight. We've also told you how to freeze them, both before and after frying. You may want to try all these methods and decide which one you like best.

CHEESE TRIFLES
1 cup butter or margarine
3 tablespoons cornstarch
½ teaspoon salt

1½ cups milk
¾ cup sifted freshly grated Parmesan cheese
2 egg yolks, beaten slightly in a small bowl
Flour
1 egg
2-3 cup fine dry bread crumbs
Corn oil (about 1 quart) for frying

Cover the bottom of a 9 by 5 by 3 inch loaf pan with a strip of aluminum foil that extends up and over the narrow sides of the pan so that the foil can be used to remove the chilled mixture.

In a 2-quart saucepan over low heat, melt the butter; stir in the cornstarch and salt; removed from heat. Gradually stir in 1½ cups of the milk, keeping smooth. Over medium heat, cook and stir constantly until sauce thickens and boils 1 minute. Gradually stir in cheese until melted. Remove from heat and at once blend a little of the hot sauce into the 2 beaten egg yolks, then stir back into remaining hot mixture. At once return to medium heat and cook and stir until very thick — like mayonnaise — this takes a minute or so. Into the prepared pan, pour the cheese mixture; cover top tightly with plastic wrap. Chill overnight. Remove plastic wrap. Using extended foil ends, lift out mixture and turn out on a floured board or pastry cloth; remove foil. Using a floured knife, cut into ¾ inch (about) squares. Roll squares in flour, coating well.

In a small bowl, beat together the egg and the remaining ¼ cup milk. Dip squares into mixture, one at a time, then into bread crumbs.

Pour corn oil into sturdy, flat bottomed kettle or deep fryer, filling utensil 1-3 full. Heat over medium heat to 375 degrees or until 1-inch cube of bread turns brown in 40 seconds. Fry squares in hot oil until coating is brown and crisp — about 30 seconds. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve hot. Makes about 60.

To Freeze: Place squares (fried or ready-to-fry) on baking sheet and freeze until firm. Wrap and return to freezer.

To serve frozen fried squares: partially thaw; unwrap and place on baking sheet heat in hot (400 degree) oven until thoroughly heated — about 6 minutes. Or heat in a small amount of oil in a skillet over medium heat until lightly browned — about 2 minutes.

To serve frozen ready-to-fry squares: Thaw at room temperature for 15 minutes, then unwrap and fry as directed in recipe.

4 Students

At Westmoor

Are Honored

Four Westmoor High seniors were awarded Letters of Commendation recently for their high performances on the 1967 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Miss Margaret Riggs, Westmoor's assistant principal, presented the certificates to Linda Bogatin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Bogatin of 82 Baldwin Avenue; Betty Hodgkiss of 138 Santa Paula Drive; Dario Deghetaldi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guido Deghetaldi Jr. of 316 Northgate Avenue; and David Smotkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Smotkin of 361 Palomar Drive.

Linda has played the piano with Westmoor's award-winning stage band for the past two years. In addition, she is a member of the California Scholarship Federation and the French Club.

Betty was recently elected president of the Westmoor branch of C.S.F.

Both David and Dario are also members of C.S.F.

All four of these Westmoor seniors scored in the upper 2 graduate from high school in reported to other scholarship-granting agencies and to the college which were named by the students.

John M. Stalmaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation has stated, "Although commended students advance no further in Merit Scholarship competition, their outstanding record in a nationwide program deserves public recognition... their intellectual talent represents an important and much needed natural resource."

Westside Baptist

Sunday School's Member Contest

At Sunday's church school hour of 9:45 a.m., the Westside Baptist Church's "Record" contest will begin.

For the next six weeks Westside Baptist Sunday School is competing in a Sunday School attendance contest with the Lakeside Baptist Church of Oakland.

The purpose of the contest is to increase the enrollment in both Sunday Schools.

Lakeside is the oldest Conference Baptist Church in California, having been organized in 1885, while Westside Baptist is one of the younger churches in the Northern California Conference, organized in 1962.

The victory theme for the contest is "Help Westside Landside Over Lakeside!" Each person who brings a new pupil to the Sunday School will receive a gospel recording. For the two persons who bring the highest number of new pupils, special recognition will be given at the end of the contest.

Westside Baptist Church School has 12 age-graded, Bible-centered classes for children and youth, with two adult classes. Also during the Sunday School Hour, Pastor A. David Donnelly will conduct a church membership orientation class for prospective church members, or for those who wish to know what the Bible teaches about the church, and the doctrines of the church.

At the 11 o'clock morning worship hour, special music will be provided by Mrs. Donna Anderson, with Mrs. Ed Brunzell at the piano.

Pastor Donnelly will speak on the topic, "The Strength of The Church."

A nursery is provided for babies and toddlers during the worship hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson, student workers, conduct a primary church service for boys and girls four years through seven years of age.

Three Conference Youth Fellowship groups meet at 6:15 p.m. each Sunday.

Family Fellowship Gospel Hour is at 7 p.m.

Bill Anderson will lead singing of the old hymns of the church, and gospel choruses. Slides of the church school picnic will be shown; also movies of high school camp at Hume Lake last summer.

Pastor Donnelly will continue in the study of the doctrine Sanctification.

On October 24, at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1600 Santa Lucia, San Bruno, the women's bible class will meet, with Mrs. Barbara DeLung the teacher. Mrs. DeLung is leading in a study of the book of Jude.

At 7:45 p.m. today Prayer and Bible Study group will meet at the James Pollock home, 2440 Bantry Lane, South San Francisco. Pastor Donnelly will begin a study in the book of II Thessalonians.

Westside Baptist Church's Sunday services are held in the San Andreas School Auditorium, Hickey Boulevard and Inverness Drive, in the Fairmont subdivision of Pacifica.

The church is actively affiliated with the Baptist General Conference. Church office is located at 3370 Longview Drive, San Bruno, phone 355-0522.

Two Terra Nova Pupils Commended

Letters of Commendation honoring them for their high performance on the 1967 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT) have been awarded to two students at Terra Nova, Principal Thanos Panagoulas has announced.

Those named are Harry Kuntz and John Thrasher.

They are among 40,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper two percent of those who will graduate from high school in 1968. The commended students advance no further the 14,000 semi-finalists announced in September by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC).

John M. Stalmaker, president of NMSC, said: "Although Commended students advance no further in the Merit Scholarship competition, their outstanding record in a nationwide program deserves public recognition. Their significant academic attainment gives promise of continued success in college."

"The Commended students should be encouraged to pursue their education since their intellectual talent represents an important and much needed natural resource. Our nation will benefit from their continuing educational development."

The Commended students' names are reported to other scholarship-granting agencies and to the colleges they name as their first and second choices at the time they took the NMSQT. The reports include home addresses, test scores, anticipated college majors and career intentions of the Commended students. NMSC encourages these students to make every effort to continue their education.

Officer Hurt In Pacifica

Pacific Police Officer Paul L. Averitt and a young Pacifica housewife were hospitalized last week after their cars collided head-on on Monterey Road near the Edgemoor Freeway.

Averitt, 43, told Highway Patrolman Gary Bugigkeit he was driving his patrol car westbound on Monterey at 11:45 p.m. when he saw the other car coming toward him. The driver of the other auto seemed to be looking away from the road as though she was lost and looking for a street sign. The officer brought his car to a stop just before the other auto crashed into it head-on.

Mrs. Betty Jean Allsworth, 19, of 415 Esplanade, was admitted to Mary's Help Hospital with severe face injuries and a possible concussion. Averitt was X-rayed for arm, shoulder and back injuries and was transferred to Kaiser Hospital.

Worship Service Timetable Told

Pastor Bill Bates of the Westlake Southern Baptist Church has announced worship and Sunday school timetables for the church, at 90 Northridge Drive, Daly City.

They are: Sunday School, 9:45 a.m.; morning worship, 11 a.m.; training union, 5:30 p.m.; evening worship, 6:30 p.m. Mid-week worship is at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays, Pastor Bates said.

Shirley Moves to Help Redwood Port Bill Facing Congress Axe

Shirley Temple Black, Eleventh District Congressional candidate, yesterday moved to help an application for federal funds considered vital to development of the Port of Redwood City, while ten other candidates were busy campaigning about the county.

Shirley warned that there was a danger that funding for a study to deepen channels at the Port of Redwood City may be cut from the 1968 Appropriations Bill.

"The project will determine feasibility of deepening to 35 feet at mean low tide ship channels at Redwood City and across San Bruno Shoal near the airport, and is among items under review in closed sessions of the Public Works Subcommittee of the House Committee on Appropriations," Mrs. Black said.

"This review comes at a time when San Mateo is without official representation, and the Congress faces Administration pressure to delay public works spending."

"Our new bridge provides economic access, and deepwater channels are imperative to attract larger ocean vessels to Redwood City."

"This key study must not be lost by the stroke of a distant pen," she declared.

"Today I have wired Mr. Robert H. Langner, executive secretary of the Marine Affairs Conference, which represents the state in such matters, requesting that he represent to the Public Works Subcommittee our sincere concern for this appropriation item be stripped from the current bill," she said yesterday.

The review was due yesterday afternoon.

An "International Salute to Shirley" in honor of Congressional candidate Shirley Temple Black will be held Friday, October 27 at 8:30 p.m. at the San Mateo County Fairgrounds.

Frank Lee, Jr., of Hillsborough, a vice chairman of Mrs. Black's campaign and chairman of the event, announced that representatives of 14 nationalities will participate.

The evening's festivities will include colorful performances of international acts, Lee said. These will range from the ceremonial Chinese lion dance to festive dances and songs of Scottish, Polish, Japanese, Irish, African, Mexican, Dutch, Korean, French, Indian, Hungarian, Swiss, Tonganese, Norwegian, Italian and Polynesian groups.

Hostesses in gala folk costumes will serve the favorite refreshments of their native countries. There will be displays and demonstrations of fashions, customs and arts, including oriental calligraphy and bonsai.

"The 'International Salute to Shirley' will be one of the highlights of Shirley Temple Black's campaign for Congress," Lee said.

"Her long-time interest in international relations spearheaded the concept of this program, which will be devoted entirely to international entertainment, costumes, displays and exotic refreshments. The members of the International Groups Committee represent a cross section of the many nationalities in San Mateo County. Through their enthusiastic participation this event will be a success."

Members of the committee assisting Lee are:

David E. Cook, Fred Loy, William Enomoto, James L. Banks, James Crawford, William C. Jow, Haruo Ishimaru, Ted

Moore, Major Charles B. Brown, Ray DeAragon, Howard Henricksen, Nicholas A. Loumos, Marta Fulham, Mrs. Helen Baglyos, Mrs. Kari Myers and Mrs. Arlene Larsen.

Vice chairmen are Mrs. Wanda Pomykalski and Dr. James Y. Wong. T. Louis Chess is honorary chairman.

Motorcades to the Fair Grounds led by the ceremonial

Chinese lion are planned by residents of Menlo Park, Belmont, San Mateo, San Bruno, South San Francisco and other communities.

Tickets, at moderate donation, may be obtained from Shirley Temple Black headquarters, 950 El Camino Real, Belmont, or at the Fair Grounds gate on the evening of the event.

Monaco Tells Airport Stand

San Bruno voters will get an opportunity to meet Dan Monaco, Democratic candidate for Congress, at a coffee "klatch" 10 a.m. Friday (October 20) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Governale, 408 South Hazel, San Bruno.

Monaco will open his San Bruno headquarters, fourth in the chain of headquarters in the district, at a cocktail party and reception to be held Saturday night, October 28. The San Bruno offices will be located at 533 San Mateo Avenue. Mrs. Governale will serve as coordinator.

TIP TO BACHELORS

Never Try to Outdo a Woman's Favorite Chicken Dish

Every woman has one or two favorite chicken dishes at which she excels. Never try to duplicate them or outdo her in the way she cooks chicken — you won't succeed. If you try, you'll never again cross the threshold of her kitchen.

However, chicken is versatile and can be prepared in a masculine, hardy way. So, next time you entertain your girl friend, surprise her with chicken and anchovies.

Buy a small fryer not less than two pounds and not over three and have the chicken cut into eight pieces. You'll also need a head of garlic, containers of basil and parsley flakes, a bottle or tin of olive oil, a small bag of regular flour, a can of beef gravy, a four-ounce can of mushroom pieces and stems, a bottle of wine vinegar and one of the small long tins of fillets of anchovies.

You'll only need a lump of butter so a quarter pound is all you need buy.

When checking out your groceries, be sure to ask the clerk for a small paper bag. And on the way home pick up a bottle of white wine, Chablis or Sauterne.

Chill the wine in the refrigerator. Open the olive oil, beef gravy, flour, mushrooms, wine vinegar and anchovies. Drain all the liquid from the mushrooms and remove the butter from the refrigerator so it'll soften a bit.

Peel two large cloves of garlic or three or four small ones. Cut each clove in half.

Unwrap the chicken and pick up the back that's the bony piece with little meat, neck and the giblets heart, gizzard and liver. Wrap these in wax paper and store them in the freezer. You can use these parts later along with more of the same for a good base for chicken soup.

If the chicken pieces are dripping wet pat off the excess moisture with paper toweling. The chicken should be moist, not dripping.

Open the paper bag and in it put about a cup of flour and a sprinkle of salt and pepper.

Put a piece of chicken into the bag, hold the top closed and shake. After each piece of chicken is coated this way, shake lightly to get off the excess flour. Place the chicken on a plate.

Using a fork, pick up two of the anchovies and put them into a cup. Take a teaspoon and with the back of the bowl mash the anchovies into a paste.

Now, to cook.

Cover the bottom of a large frying pan with olive oil and heat over medium heat. Add the pieces of garlic and the anchovy paste. Sprinkle two pinches of basil into the oil and stir.

When the garlic halves are brown, remove them. They have served their purpose by flavoring the oil and anchovies.

Add the chicken pieces side by side and sprinkle light with salt and pepper. This is also the time for a pinch of parsley flakes. Cook for 15 minutes over medium heat. Then turn the chicken and repeat the process.

While it's cooking, nudge the chicken every five minutes or so to keep it from sticking to the pan.

While the chicken is frying you deserve a reward. Open the wine and pour yourself a glass. Then treat the chicken to a tablespoon of the wine.

When the chicken has cooked for 30 minutes, remove the pieces to a plate, turn the heat up another notch and add a four-ounce glass of wine vinegar. Stir and cook for a few minutes — just until there's no more vinegar aroma. Lower the heat to medium and add half

Place For School Lunch Programs

No matter how you look at it, the School Lunch Program and the Special School Milk Programs have vital places in the community. Whether children walk two blocks or 20 miles by bus to school, they can benefit from these programs in many ways. The health values are obvious. Important also are the health education, forming of good eating habits, social experiences, promotion of community spirit.

The Special School Milk Program is an expansion of the long established National School Lunch Program. Both programs are sponsored by the United States Department of Agriculture with the objective of improving the health and efficiency of every student in our elementary and secondary schools. California schools and the California dairy industry have worked closely on these programs since their inception.

Through the program, milk is made more readily available to more students, at lower cost, in schools which do not participate in the National School Lunch Program.

Recent studies of the food habits of school children by state educational agencies in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture strongly support the value of this program. They reveal that in most areas, milk is consumed by more children in grades six and below than by those in the upper grades. Boys drink more milk than girls, especially at the older age levels.

Milk cannot be replaced in the diet of children for, in our national food supply, milk and dairy foods provide three-fourths of the available calcium, about half of the riboflavin, one-fourth of the protein and fat and some of nearly all other essential nutrients. Intake of milk, more than any food, affects the nutritive quality of the child's diet. Three cups of milk daily for younger children, more for teenagers is recommended by nutritionists.

Breakfast To Promote Some Energy

Mid-morning lag is likely to overtake the person who does not start the day with a well-balanced, energy-promoting breakfast. And, let's face it, at school and on the job, promotions go to those who are alert.

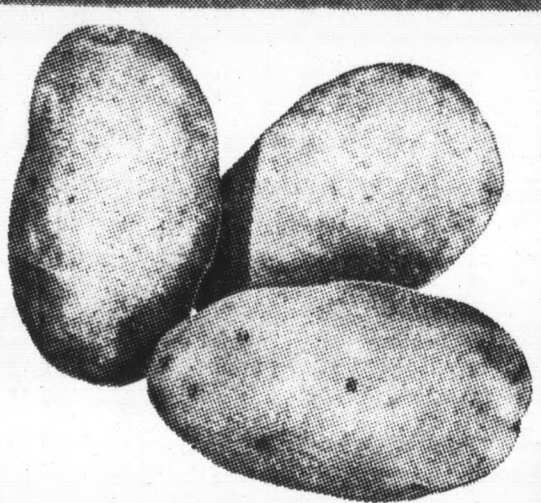

Nutritional surveys have turned up a number of reasons why well over one-half of our teen-age and adult population are not eating an adequate breakfast. Top of the list is "insufficient time." So think twice when you set your alarm clock. An extra 15 minutes in the morning can give you the time necessary for the family to sit down and truly enjoy the morning meal.

A lifetime habit of a glass of milk or hot or cold milk-made beverage will go a long way toward filling the nutritional requirements of a well-balanced breakfast.

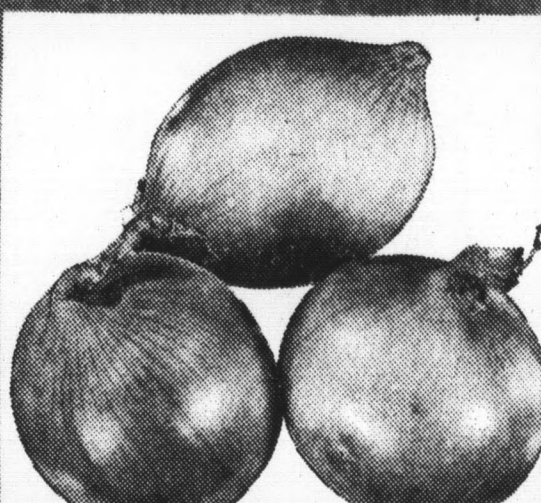

Breakfast may be as simple or as fancy as you like, but it should provide 1/4 to one-third of your daily nutritional requirements.

For a speedy breakfast, fruit juice or half a grapefruit, ready-to-eat cereal with milk which is far and away our most popular breakfast team, a large glass of milk and coffee, of course for those who take it. All this can be prepared and eaten in less than 15 minutes.

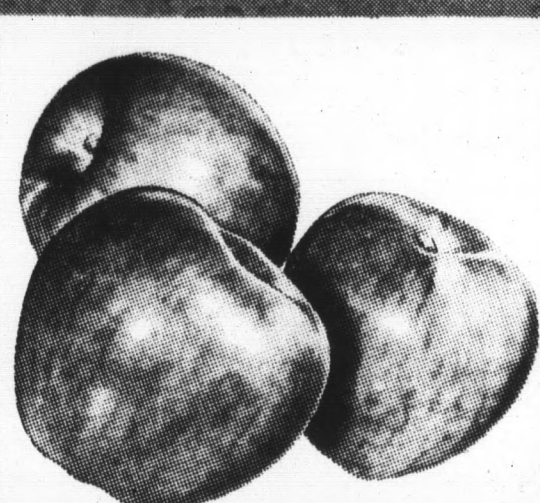

With a bit more time, eggs are quickly fried, poached, soft-cooked in the shell or scrambled. Breakfast meats are many; are packed with additional nourishment for providing vim and vigor. For leisurely mornings, pancakes, waffles or other hot bread served with butter and other appropriate toppings are good nutritional dividends.

Blue Cheese Topping For Lamb Chops

Broiler meats are the quick meals in a homemaker's menu plans. If she's a career woman, too, she'll want something that's really quick.

These lamb shoulder chops are prepared with a topping that goes on for the last two minutes, and requires only 15 minutes cooking time. Frozen French fried potatoes will heat in about that same time while broiled tomatoes with a butter-bread crumb crown take no longer.

Shoulder chops which come from the chuck or forequarter are more meaty than rib or loin varieties.

Broiled Lamb Chops—Blue Cheese Topping
6 lamb shoulder chops, cut ¾ to 1-inch thick
½ cup crumbled blue cheese, firmly packed
2 tablespoons sliced green onion
¼ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
2 tablespoons softened butter or margarine

Set regulator for broiling. Place chops on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan and rack so the top of the chops is three inches from the heat. Broil first side until browned, about eight minutes, turn and broil second side, about four minutes. Combine cheese, onions, salt, pepper, and butter or margarine. Spread about two tablespoons of cheese mixture evenly over each chop; continue broiling 2 minutes or until cheese is lightly browned. Six servings.

Cucumbers In Sour Cream For Salmon

Cucumbers in sour cream are a perfect accompaniment for salmon.

Poached Salmon
Scalloped Potatoes
Buffet Cucumbers
Cherry Tomatoes Bread Tray
Chocolate Cake Beverage

BUFFET CUCUMBERS
1 container (8 ounces) cream-style cottage cheese (small or large curd)

1-3 cup milk
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 large cucumbers
each about 10 inches long and 2 inches wide
1 teaspoon (about) salt
White pepper to taste
2 tablespoons minced chives

In an electric blender, combine the cheese, milk and lemon juice until smooth; cover and refrigerate. Pare cucumbers; halve lengthwise, scoop out seeds smoothly and discard seeds. Slice cucumbers into thin crescents; cover and refrigerate. Just before serving, combine about 1 cup of the blended cheese mixture with cucumbers and remaining ingredients.

This is a good way to use cucumbers with large seeds. Makes 8 servings.

Small Version Of Oldtime Cake Favorite

A small version of an oldtime cake that's as delicious now as it was years ago.

Split Pea Soup Ham Sandwiches

Ice Cream Mini-Measure Cake

MINI-MEASURE CAKE

1½ cups sifted cake flour

1 teaspoon baking powder

¼ teaspoon salt

½ cup (1 stick) butter

1 cup sugar

¾ teaspoon vanilla

2 large eggs

½ cup less 1 tablespoon milk

Butter the entire inside surface of a 9 by 5 by 3 inch loaf pan. On wax paper, sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. In a medium bowl, using the electric mixer at high speed, thoroughly cream butter. Beat in sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, then vanilla — this should take 5 minutes. Beat in eggs, one at a time — about 1 minute per egg at low speed. Gently beat in flour in 4 additions, alternately with milk, until smooth after each addition. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in a 325-degree oven until cake springs back when lightly touched and cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 1 hour. Place pan on wire rack to cool for 10 minutes; loosen edges; turn out on rack; turn right side up; cool. Brush off crumbs around sides; frost as desired.

Serve Liver Entree In Chinese Style

When the old-fashioned way of serving liver doesn't work with the family, try a different one. If they like Chinese foods, for example, this may just be the way to make it popular.

Rather than having the liver in the usual slices, it may be cut in cubes or strips for this recipe, points out a meat authority. Brown it in lard or drippings which give it an excellent bit of flavor.

After the raw vegetables like celery and green pepper are added along with canned tomatoes, the liver is cooked at a very gentle temperature so that it doesn't become less tender. Chinese vegetables are added only long enough to heat through.

LIVER CHOW MEIN

1½ pounds sliced liver

2 tablespoons lard or drippings

2 stalks celery, cut in 1 inch pieces

½ cup chopped green pepper

1 can (28 ounces) tomatoes

1 can (16 ounces) Chinese vegetables

6 tablespoons cornstarch

3 tablespoons bead molasses

2 tablespoons soy sauce

½ teaspoon salt

¼ teaspoon pepper

2 cans (3 ounces each) Chinese noodles

Cut liver in one-inch cubes or strips. Brown in lard or drippings. Add celery, green pepper and tomatoes, and allow to simmer about 20 minutes. Add drained Chinese vegetables. Mix cornstarch, bead molasses, soy sauce, salt and pepper. Add to meat and vegetable mixture. Cook until thickened. Serve on Chinese noodles. 6 to 8 servings.

Beef Patties Take Topping Of Sausages

Flavor's the thing that rejuvenates those summer-weary appetites back to normalcy. Consider the delightful combination for ground beef with pork sausages and mushroom caps.

These pyramids are just as easy to make as grilled beef patties since they need no turning once assembled. Ground beef patties are topped with tomato slices, seasoned with instant onion and parsley flakes, then pork sausage links and finally, mushrooms.

Beef and Sausage Pyramids

1½ pounds ground beef

1 pound pork sausage links

1 teaspoon salt

¼ teaspoon pepper

8 tomato slices, cut ½-inch thick

1½ teaspoons instant minced onion

1½ teaspoons parsley flakes

1 can (4 oz.) mushroom caps, drained

Combine ground beef, salt and pepper. Shape into eight patties, approximately ½-inch thick. Top each with a tomato slice, sprinkle with instant onion and parsley. Place two sausage links on each patty and arrange on a rack in a shallow roasting pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350-degree F.) for 30 minutes. Remove from oven and place mushroom caps on top, using a wooden pick to hold in place. Return to oven and continue baking for 15 minutes. Serve hot. Eight servings.

EASY SUMMER FARE

A zesty meal in one dish borrowed from Spain makes a hearty dinner. Sauté 3 cups of chopped meat in oil. Add 2 tablespoons instant blending flour, dash salt and pepper. Add 1 tablespoon Gravy Master seasoning and browning sauce. 2 medium onions chopped and cooked. 1 green pepper, chopped and cooked. 2 cups canned tomatoes. Simmer for 15 minutes and stir in a few sliced green olives. Cook for five minutes more and serve with sesame bread sticks and iced tea with rock candy sifters.

Melt 2-3 of the butter over low heat; add meat and brown lightly. Add onions and garlic and cook 5 minutes. Add tomato sauce, salt, pepper, and Worcestershire sauce; mix well. Cover and simmer gently 1 hour or until meat is tender. Saute mushrooms in remaining butter just until tender; do not overcook. Just before serving stir mushrooms and dairy sour cream into meat. Reheat just to simmer. Serve over parsleyed noodles.

Bacon, Onions Go in Pastry For Luncheon

A savory combination of cooked bacon and fried onions in a custard-type pie makes a delightful luncheon entree.

Serve this two-crust pastry with a luscious fruit salad and beverage. It will satisfy most club women as an adequate luncheon.

Classic Onion Pie, as it's called, may also be served in smaller wedges as an appetizer for a dinner party. The pastry will be easy to mix, even when the lard is taken directly from the refrigerator, since it's very pliable.

Classic Onion Pie

Pastry:
2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup lard
4 to 6 tablespoons ice water
Mix flour and salt. Cut lard into flour until crumbs are about the size of small peas. Add ice water a little at a time, mixing quickly and evenly through flour with a fork until dough just holds in a ball. Use as little water as possible. Divide pastry in half. Roll half of pastry to about 1/8-inch thickness and line a 9-inch pie pan, allowing 1/2-inch of pastry to extend over edge. Prepare the Bacon-Onion Filling.
Bacon-Onion Filling:
6 slices bacon, diced
2 cups coarsely chopped onion
1/4 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 1/4 cups coffee cream
2 eggs, beaten Brown bacon and remove from drippings. Cook onion slowly in bacon drippings 5 minutes. Add flour, salt and pepper and blend well. Gradually add cream and mix well. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and cook slowly to beaten eggs. Add cooked bacon. Add filling to pastry-lined pan.
Roll remaining pastry for top and cut gashes for escape of steam. Place pastry over filling and fold lower crust over top crust. Crimp edges. If desired, brush top with milk or cream. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 35 to 40 minutes or until browned. 6 servings.

Lamb Shanks Braised In Zesty Sauce

Lamb shanks, also known as "trotters," are a flavorful meat cut. They're very popular with those who have dined on them.

If the family is a bit saddened over having to shift dining from the porch or patio to the inside, make it easier by giving them a barbecued meal such as these lamb shanks.

Since they're braised, that is, cooked by moist heat, explains a meat expert, they need liquid for cooking while tightly covered. In this case, it's a barbecue sauce.

Barbecued Lamb Shanks
6 lamb shanks
1/4 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 medium onion, chopped
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup catsup
3 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1 cup water
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon red pepper
Mix flour, salt and pepper. Dredge lamb shanks in seasoned flour. Brown slowly in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Mix remaining ingredients and pour over lamb shanks. Cover and simmer about 2 hours or until tender. 6 servings.

LET'S KNIT

With Illustrated Patterns
By Ursula duBois

Be elegant in 5½ hours of knitting time with this kimono style coat modeled by Cheryl Miller of CBS Television's "Daktari" show. It was fashioned with the new extra large, super-speed knitting needles which are catching on like wildfire! We used a brilliant orange colored yarn and decorated the coat with store bought white frogs. Hem and front borders feature a wide seedstitch design, the neck has a simple mandarin appearing finish. This stunning garment is guaranteed to turn everyone's head.

Illustrated instructions come in sizes 8 through 22. All sizes are included on one pattern.

Miss Miller is wearing with this kimono coat a two-piece shell and skirt outfit which is No. 185. The shell features a lace-stitch design. The straight skirt which is started at the waist has instructions for street-length and full-length. The hem of the skirt also features the identical lace design which is carried in the shell. The entire outfit was also knitted on the large needles and took approximately six hours to fashion. The appearance is not at all bulky as you might think due to the use of the large knitting needles.

The kimono coat, by the way, cannot only be worn with a street or full-length dress, but is equally fashionable when worn with capris.

Illustrated instructions come in sizes 10 through 20. All sizes are included on one pattern.

Yarn cost for either one of these garments is surprisingly low. Shell and skirt can be fashioned for approximately $10.00, and the coat for $23.

To obtain pattern No. 176 or No. 185, send $1.00 for EACH pattern in currency, check, or money order to: Ursula duBois Lewis, San Mateo Times, Box 3307, Van Nuys, Calif. 91407. Send 15 cents extra for first class mail and special handling. PLEASE PRINT PLAINLY YOUR NAME, ADDRESS, PATTERN NUMBER AND ZIP CODE NUMBER.

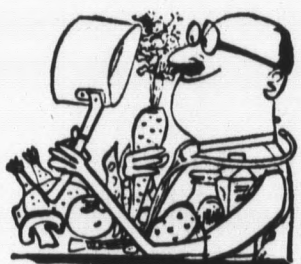

Other items you may enjoy: No. 32, 518 Coat, $1.00—sizes 10-20; No. 33, Mohair Mink Coat, $1.00—sizes 10-20; No. 69, Christmas Stocking, 75 cents; No. 70, Toilet Paper and Tissue Cover, 75 cents; No. 36, Boots and Slippers, 75 cents; No. 96, Knitted and Crocheted Golf Covers, 75 cents; No. K, Knit Pickin' Knit Book, $1.50; No. C50, Catalog, 50 cents.

Among the most damaging of the diet fads sweeping across the face of the land is preoccupation with one or another of the essential nutrient substances. This may consist of overemphasis on the virtues of certain foods, or an excessive fear or aversion to them. Often this is based on misunderstanding of reported research findings.

There are six important classes of foods, each making its own distinctive contribution to well considered, healthful eating. These classes of nutrients may be found in foods in each of the four food groups which are the convenient basis for shopping and meal planning.

Any distortion of the proper balance between these food classes is injurious to good nutrition if it is practiced either in short-term intensive "crash" diets or over a long period of time. The six essential nutrients are as follows:

Proteins

Proteins are the first requirement for body growth, maintenance or repair at all times of life and without regard to the amount of activity undertaken. Proteins are found in meat, fish, poultry, game, eggs, milk, cheese, ice cream, dried peas and beans, nuts and cereals.

Carbohydrates

Carbohydrates, fuel and energy foods and sweets, are most valuable when found in association with other nutrients such as proteins, vitamins or minerals; carbohydrate sources include cereals, breads, fruits, sugar, syrups, honey and some vegetables, especially potatoes.

Fats

Fats, like carbohydrates, are fuel and energy foods, but also supply valuable fatty acids and carry the important fat-soluble vitamins A and D. Sources are meats, some fish, liver, milk, butter, vegetable oils, nuts and a few fat-rich vegetables.

(Note: Carbohydrate and fat intake must be adjusted to the activity program of the individual, since superfluous amounts are stored in the body as fat.)

Vitamins and Minerals

Vitamins and minerals supply no calories, but are essential, often in minute quantities, for the regulation of body chemical and electrolytic functions, glandular secretions and blood and tissue integrity. Since some of these are not stored in the body, a continuous supply is necessary. A diet rich in fruits, vegetables, dairy products, glandular meats and deep-sea foods assures an adequate supply, unless a physician advises otherwise.

Water

Water is often overlooked as a nutrient. The only nutrients it supplies are traces of minerals such as fluoride, iron and iodine, but all chemical and electrolytic functions take place in solution; water is second only to oxygen as a vital requirement.

All this adds up simply to the realization that all of the six classes of nutrients are essential for all persons at all ages. To sell any of them short is to risk poor nutrition and consequent health problems. It is unwise to make changes in diet except with medical advice, on an individual basis.

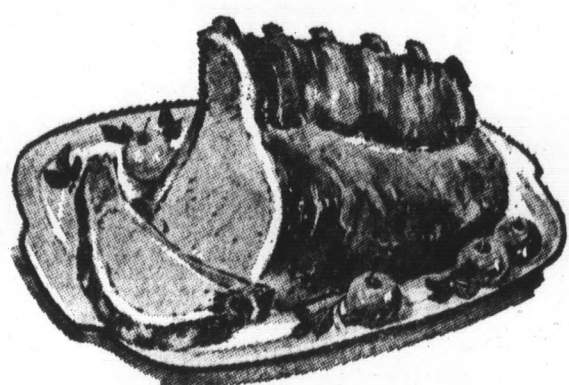

PROTEIN RICH DISHES

For protein-rich main dishes, use milk whenever possible in your casseroles or other hearty combinations. Use it in whatever form is most convenient; whole milk, homogenized, evaporated, nonfat dry milk solids, whole milk powder, buttermilk or even yogurt. Use cheese, too, since it is really concentrated milk.

COUNTY Clerk John Bruning assists Sheriff Earl Whitmore in filing for 11th District Congressional race and wife and child look on.

Larwood Chairs Whitmore Division

Mark S. Larwood has joined the Whitmore for Congress campaign as chairman of its business and industry committee. Larwood served as city manager of South San Francisco before founding the microfilm firm which bears his name. From company headquarters in Redwood City, Larwood operates branch offices throughout the United States.

Robert B. Murray, Jr., who served as undersecretary of commerce in the Eisenhower administration, was among those of 60 prominent San Mateo County residents listed as sponsors on the nomination papers filed by Whitmore at the county clerk's office.

Among those who signed the Whitmore nomination papers for the November 14 Congressional primary were John Doelger of Daly City, Grand Jurors for Whitmore chairman; former Supervisor Thomas J. Callan of Colma, Daly City Councilman Michael DeBernardi; former mayors William Leutenegger and Earl Wilms and Councilman James O'Connor of Millbrae; Robert Hunter, Daly City member of San Mateo County Republican Central Committee; Roberta Drye of South San Francisco, Harland Minshew, vice mayor of Pacifica, Mayor Sidney Herkner and Councilman Paul Keckley of Redwood City.

Whitmore's fourth and fifth Congressional campaign headquarters will open this week in Menlo Park and Half Moon Bay. Opening ceremonies for the Menlo Park office at 65 El Camino Real are scheduled Thursday, October 19, from 7 to 9 p.m. with a public reception honoring Whitmore. Sis Coler Belmont resident who has been active in Republican political campaign work, will head the volunteer staff.

Half Moon Bay headquarters at 401 Main Street also will be open daily to distribute campaign materials and information about Whitmore's candidacy for the Eleventh Congressional District (San Mateo County) seat. Heading the Half Moon Bay Whitmore team are Chester Luccini, Robert McClary and Larry Charon.

Central headquarters is in San Mateo at 102 South El Camino Real. Other branch offices are located in Daly City at 6719 Mission Street, and Redwood City at 721 El Camino Real.

As a preliminary to the November 14 Congressional primary election, Whitmore backers throughout the county are staging a series of dinners in honor of the Republican candidate; a Redwood City Citizens for Whitmore dinner Friday, October 20, at Redwood City American Legion Hall; a Coastside dinner Tuesday, October 24, at Nick's Rockaway Restaurant in Pacifica; a countywide "Whitmore Victory Rally" dinner Thursday, November 2, at San Mateo Elks Lodge, and a testimonial dinner Monday, November 6, at the Carousel Restaurant in San Carlos.

NAACP Leader McCloskey Choice

Paul N. McCloskey Jr. has announced the appointment of Harry B. Bremond as chairman of the East Palo Alto McCloskey for Congress Committee.

Bremond, an attorney, is former vice president of the San Mateo National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Congress for Racial Equality.

He lives with his wife, Faye, at 2251 Farrington Way, East Palo Alto.

He also announced the appointment of Mrs. Richard I. Gonzalez, of Woodside, as South County Women's chairman of the McCloskey for Congress campaign.

Mrs. Vincent (Lubby) Cullinan was appointed North County's Women's chairman of the McCloskey for Congress campaign.

Gregory Sims, who until filing time had indicated he would be a candidate, and then announced he actually was supporting McCloskey, was appointed "Chairman of College Youth for McCloskey" committee.

Sims has said that he would not support any candidate winning the Republican primary, if that candidate should support continuation of the war effort in Vietnam.

McCloskey told more than 100 students at Capuchino High School October 12 that "you have a responsibility to your country — now and for the future."

MILK PROGRAM
As youngsters and their parents are settling into back-to-school routines, the spotlight of good nutrition falls on the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Special Milk Program. This program, which seeks to boost milk consumption among children by paying some of the cost, provides milk the year around. During the school months approximately 7,284 California schools participate. During the summer, the program continues its good work by including many nonprofit summer camps.

Cabrillo Bonds Pushed

First results of a preliminary survey, showing public feeling for a school bond issue and an appraisal of future building possibilities were given the Cabrillo Unified School District board of trustees last week.

Superintendent Lowell K. Brubaker reported a survey of the district's school council of leading citizens and the Half Moon Bay Junior Chamber of Commerce, which indicated they thought the district should go for a bond issue for more sites, buildings and other needs before the situation becomes urgent enough to require double sessions and that September or October would be the best time for such an election. The vote on waiting for double sessions was 31-2 against.

Brubaker said he will survey some other groups in the district shortly.

James Orsborne, a State Department of Schoolhouse Planning representative, told the board it someday should replace Cunha School, which he said was structurally adequate but educationally inadequate, with classrooms to small and other facilities below par.

Orsborne also talked about the educational park or plaza idea, with all facilities centralized within a district, telling the board this sort of thing generally is feasible only where real estate values go above $70,000 an acre and scattered campuses become too expensive.

This type of facility and its possibilities are being studied by many districts faced with future building programs.

In other business the board: Okayed use of district-owned land in north El Granada (a new school site), Tunitas Creek (the old Tunis School site) and San Gregorio (a school site) for agricultural instruction uses.

Accepted a $10,000 federal grant through the county PACE program for special counseling and programs for children with special problems in summer school next year.

Accepted the new high school library, subject to punchlist completion.

Vacuum Wins Over Broom In Pacifica

The water closet in the bathroom at 351 Glencourt Way, Pacifica, overflowed last Sunday—and flowed and flowed.

Until the entire downstairs of the two-story Westview home was sopping wet in two to three inches of water.

Barbara Rodgers, Pacifica fireman, said attempted to sweep out the water, but in actuality was moving it "from one room to another."

In desperation, she finally called the fire department, at 11:50 p.m., wanting to know if the firemen knew how to get the water out.

They did, and set to work with their Sani-vac industrial type cleaner that sucked up the water—but it took them an hour and a half to do the job in the living and dining rooms, kitchen and bath, they said.

Two Hurt In Burlingame

Two youths have been treated at Peninsula Hospital for head injuries suffered in weekend accidents in Burlingame.

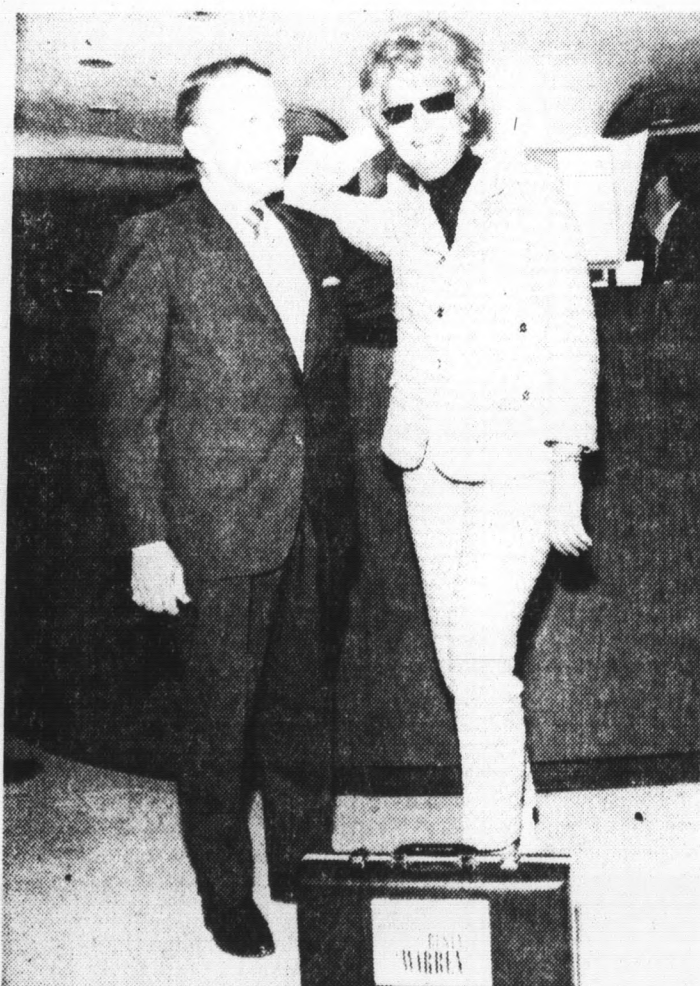

Bruce D. Brian, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brian, 756 Cottonwood Avenue, South San Francisco, was reported in seemingly good condition with injuries received while ice skating.

Joseph Cergolj, 12, son of Mrs. Mira Rodriguez, 2104 Adeline Drive, Burlingame, was reported in satisfactory condition with injuries received when he fell from his bicycle while delivering papers.

$1,775 Theft In Daly City

Jewelry, furs and money, valued at more than $1,775, was stolen from the Georgina M. Frizza home at 654 St. Francis Boulevard, Sunday, Daly City police report.

Entry to the home was made through a sliding rear glass door, investigators said.

"HOLD THAT TIGER" Steve "Dynamite" Norton, director of sales for the Villa Hotel, was on hand at the International Airport to greet Rusty Warren upon her arrival for a Circle Star Theater engagement. The Villa Hotel was Rusty's local headquarters during her stay on the Peninsula.

Bad Check Frauds

The issuance of a check drawn upon any bank or depository or person or firm or corporation for payment of money, knowing that the maker or drawer or the corporation has not sufficient funds in, or credit with said bank or depository, or person or firm or corporation for the payment of such check, draft or order and all other drafts, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or in the state prison for not more than 14 years.

A SUMMARY, such as the above, of Section 476a of the Penal Code of the State of California can be seen posted on the counter or cash register of many stores. Despite this serious warning, bad checks are the fastest growing fraud in California.

Business is estimated to lose over $1 billion dollars annually. Merchants in the Peninsula and Bay area lose hundreds of thousands of dollars yearly. The problem has grown so serious that county police departments have had to train special investigators to trace bad checks and their writers.

SUPERMARKETS, department stores and service stations are the hardest hit by the professional and amateur bad check writers.

A national survey showed that hardware stores show the greatest resistance to cashing bad checks. According to this survey, rubber check writers are mostly adults and two-thirds males.

"Kiting" is the covering of one bad check with another. A 17-year-old boy, allegedly operating an involved and sophisticated con game, paid all of his expenses, totalling $3,000, in this manner.

Merchants should demand authentic identification. Stores have serious problems with persons who write checks and then decide to stop payment on them, leaving the firm holding the bag.

THIRD party checks can be dangerous. It is advisable to know the endorser on checks accepted. Beware of the check with too many endorsers.

A postdated check is actually nothing more than a promissory note. The police can do nothing to help the merchant who accepts a bad "pre-dated" check and then negotiates with the check passer to get his money. The only way such a check can be collected is through a collection agent or through court action.

A sampling of new car sales for the last 10 days of September provide an optimistic note for the 1968 model year.

For the last 10 days of the month, Chrysler-Plymouth Division sales were 30,987 units, compared with 27,870 in the same period last year. Chrysler-Plymouth's September total of 67,719 units sold was a record for the month and 20 per cent ahead of the previous September high of 56,626 cars sold last year.

Ford Division car sales of 49,292 for the last 10 days of September were the third highest in history for the period.

The record of 71,192 new cars was established in 1964. In the same 1965 period, 52,672 were sold.

"In view of the acute shortage of inventory caused by the strike against Ford Motor Company, the sales achievement in the final 10 days of September this year is especially gratifying," commented M. S. (Matt) McLaughlin, Ford Motor Company vice president.

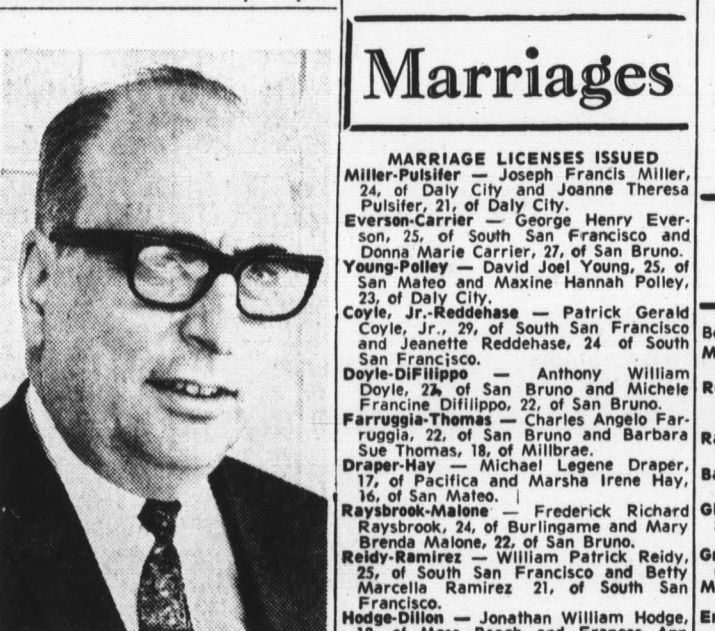

For the same magic 10 days, Buick dealers sold 32,737 cars, compared with 28,895 in the same period last year, according to Roland S. Withers, general sales manager.

Buick's 1968 line was introduced in dealer showrooms September 21, whereas the 1967 models went on sale September 29 last year.

The upward trend is reflected in foreign car sales as well. Paced by Volkswagen and Japan's two major auto makers — Toyota and Nissan — foreign car sales are headed for an all-time record of 750,000 in 1967.

Ray M. Hoen, national sales manager for Nissan Motor Corp., has announced the biggest retail sales month in their history.

A San Francisco man was injured Wednesday in an industrial accident at the Wells Manufacturing Co., plant on Littlefield Road in South San Francisco, police reported.

Monthly signing of new American Motors dealers reached a five-year high in September, Williams S. Pickett, automotive sales vice president, announced. Pickett said 40 dealers in 25 states took on American Motors new car franchises last month, the highest monthly total since September, 1962.

Jack Hiat, San Francisco Giants utility player who enjoyed a .298 batting average this past season, has joined Metcalf-Mayer Lincoln Mercury Cougar and will work in new car sales and leasing. Hatt, a San Mateo resident, has many friends in the area.

San Mateo county will enjoy at least two major auto shows this model year.

Westlake Shopping Center in Daly City announces that 56 cars have already been scheduled for display on the center mall November 8 through 11, according to ad and promotion director Gene Perry. This is Westlake's 11th annual show.

Burlingame-San Mateo dealers are planning a gala three-day show January 18, 19 and 20 at the San Mateo fair grounds. This will be a paid admission event and will feature topname entertainment. More details to be released soon, according to George McQueen, promotion man for the show.

New Trial for 3 S.S.F. Suspects

A new trial for three men accused of the armed robbery of a South San Francisco bakery manager has been scheduled for January 8.

Their first trial came to an abrupt halt Monday when it was discovered that someone had broken into the courtroom of Superior Judge James T. O'Keefe during the weekend and stolen most of the evidence in the case.

Judge O'Keefe declared a mistrial because members of the jury became aware of the theft. The prosecutor, Alan W. Haverly, however, said the case can be retried without the stolen evidence. He has photographs of most of the missing articles, which included hats and gloves worn by the suspects, as well as eyewitness descriptions.

In Judge Frank W. Rose's court yesterday all three defense attorneys withdrew from the case. Joseph Maltman asked to be relieved as counsel for Anthony Michael Jr., 18. He told the court that he hadn't been paid for his services.

Judge Rose appointed Maltman to continue to represent Michael. His fees will be paid by the county.

Michael R. Nave withdrew as counsel for Lawrence Boykin, 18, explaining that he is entering a different type of law practice, and Arthur Pollock was appointed in his place.

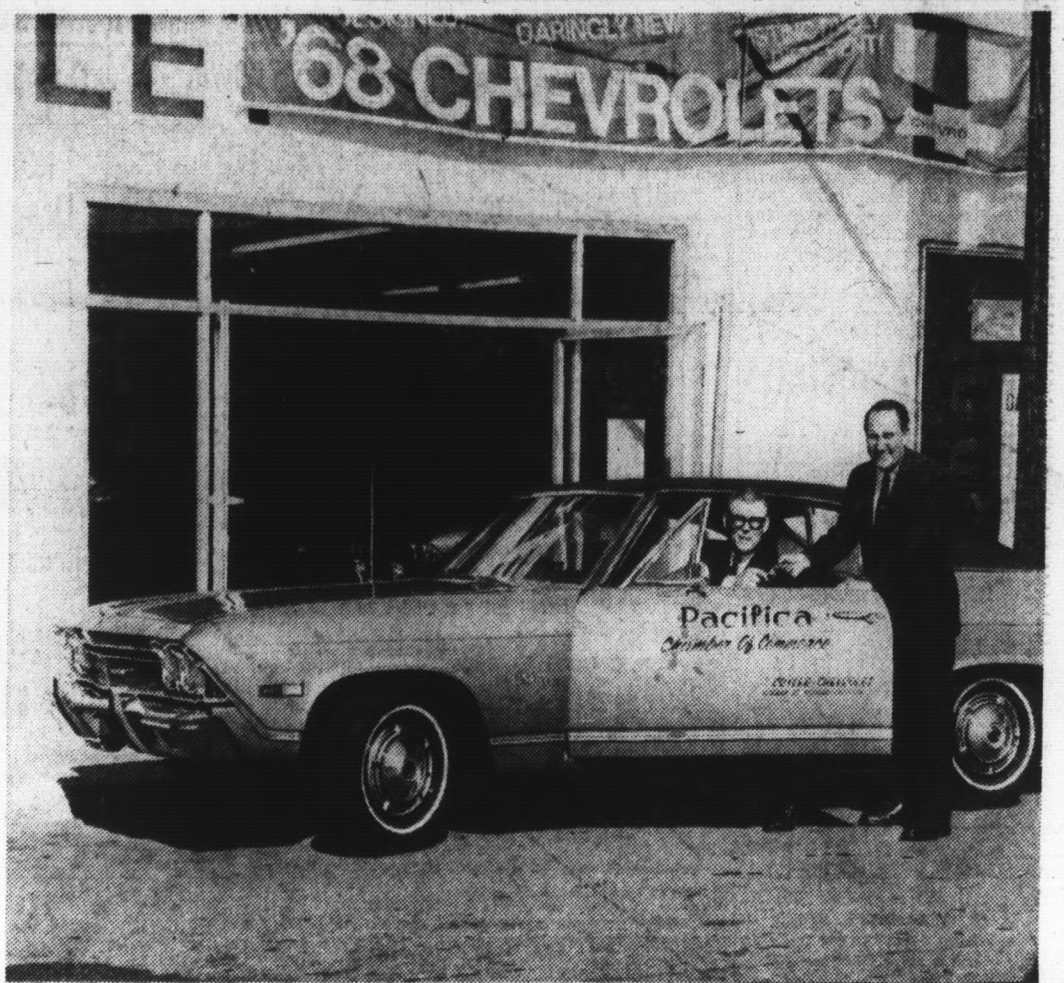

Edward A. Hume withdrew as attorney for George Brewster, 32, and Judge Rose gave the defendant two weeks to hire another lawyer or ask for a court appointment.

After the burglary was discovered, the defendants were questioned in the district attorney's office and denied any knowledge of the crime.

"The burglary didn't really accomplish much," Haverly said, "except delay the trial."

The jury trial had gone on for five days before it was called off.

The defendants are accused of taking $521 at gunpoint from Fred Chris Wedemeyer, 62, of 500 Yosemite Drive, South San Francisco, last May 19.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"

Small cavities in the teeth can be filled more easily and with less discomfort than large ones. If decay is neglected it leads to infection and abscess formation. An infected tooth is a hazard to good health and often must be removed. A tooth that has been lost should be replaced by an artificial one. If it is not, the other teeth will shift. This shifting may lead to more decay and to diseases of the gums.

Irregular placement of the teeth should be corrected for many reasons: To improve appearance, speech, and the ability to chew foods and to help prevent other dental diseases. Have your dentist check for cavities and follow his recommendations if treatment is needed.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth. Dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Winter in Miami

COME ON DOWN — Everyone heads for Miami in the winter (don't they??) And with winter approaching, it's only natural that people head for Miami (isn't it??) Now guess where all the Jefferson Elementary School District trustees are? In Miami, naturally. Attending a National Convention.

EGG THROWERS — Daly City police are keeping their fingers crossed that there will not be a repeat of that Halloween egg toss again this year in the Westlake Shopping Center parking lot. Several dances and other recreational activities have been planned to keep the youths occupied. We wonder if the parents of these youth can't think of something to keep them busy around the house instead of acting like a bunch of rowdy children at this time of the year.

ALTHOUGH WESTMOOR HIGH SCHOOL will have a Halloween dance, Jefferson H.S. has scheduled their shuffle for a week before and will be locked up tighter than a drum on the night the witches are supposed to buzz around town.

FLASHY FLASH — D.C. has picked an assistant city planner to aid planner Ed Lawson. Don't know his name yet, but he's from out of town — Salt Lake City. All he needs is an okay on a physical and he's in.

BILL SCHUMAUCHER, formally assistant D.A. at the Northern Judicial District Court will soon join D.C. City Attorney Albert Polonsky in private practice. Schumaucher will continue to teach at a law enforcement course at CSM—one reason he left the D.A.'s office.

THE STATUS OF THOSE apartment buildings on the hill in Daly City are becoming more (legally) muddled each day. They've passed from owner to owner and have been hit by fire at three times in the past year. A real eyesore.

THAT GUADALUPE CANYON PARKWAY is a nice scenic relaxing thoroughfare — until you get to the John F. Kennedy school area. Motorists are already complaining of near accidents because of trucks parked on a sharp curve in that locale. Police take note: Those trucks aren't marked with an abundance of reflectors, making them extremely difficult to see at night.

BLAME FOR CRIME — In agreement with D.C. police chief that public apathy towards crime is responsible for its increase is

Attorney General Ramsey Clark. Ramsey called for a change in public attitudes toward crime during a talk in Chicago recently. Immediately after an article appeared in the Post concerning public apathy and crime, an unidentified caller informed us the courts were the blame for the crime rise — not public apathy as chief Petrocchi said. Who can you believe? The experts or a member of that apathetic public?

SICK CALL DEPT.: JESD trustee Frank Monte's young son. Surgery at Franklin Hospital in San Francisco. Doing fine former San Bruno mayor and councilman Karney Barberian, recuperating at home following surgery for kidney stones at Peninsula Hospital. He expects to be back tearing up the fairways at Green Hills Country Club soon Pan American's Jack Rice, felled by a heart attack at work. Doing fine at Mills Hospital.

LATER THAN YOU THINK — just read in the A.M. paper that the Yuletide mail deadline has been set for overseas. How time flies. Less than 50 shopping days left.

THE ANNUAL INSTALLATION dinner for D.C. Colma chamber of Commerce officers will be at the Olympic Club on November 11 — Veterans Day — which prompted Director Ed Morgan to remark: "Couldn't be more appropriate for our outgoing president (John Wuerthner)."

DOROTHY ADAMS, prominent P-TA leader, has requested newspaper reports in the future concerning her appearances before school not mention her P-TA status — only that she is a taxpayer, concerned citizen, etc., etc. Does it really matter???

PROOF MISTAKE — We WROTE "Patti Parks Stolz (North County Chorale) signs her letters Sing-Cerely" but someone in our proof section thought "Sin-Cerely" sounded better. Sorry about that Patti — we think you ought to stick to "Chord-ially" Yours. It's much safer.

NO ESCAPING COUNTY — We traveled more than 500 miles to escape the North County during our recent vacation, but it didn't do any good. Camping at a remote site near Mt. Lassen our "neighbors" were Pacificans Rat Boucher and Al Keene. Aside from keeping the entire camp awake all night with their story telling, they behaved very well (we were asked to relay this info to their spouses).

Our Opinion

Enforcement the Key

American traffic officials could well be envious of their British counterparts, who have a built-in publicity gimmick in their new drive against drunken driving.

Everybody's calling the roadside breath test the "green peril," because suspect drivers will have to breathe into a tube of crystals, which turn green upon contact with a goodly amount of alcohol. When everybody's talking, the officials get double mileage out of their campaign, for the publicity itself acts as a deterrent against driving while drinking.

The real test, however, is not in the initial publicity or any catchy nicknames like "green peril." The campaign will prove effective if British officials really enforce the new drunken driving law. It's a stiff one.

Any driver who doesn't agree to the breath test is liable to a $140 fine and may still be arrested. If he flunks the "green peril" test, he will be required to take a blood test. And if that proves he indeed is drunk, he faces a $280 fine or four months imprisonment or both.

Getting such a law is only half the battle. In the United States, there are enough laws on the statute books to stop drunken drivers after their first offense. But too often the courts are lenient and the drinking driver gets off with a lighter charge.

It doesn't take long for word to get around that the drinking driver gets sympathetic attention, and this encourages others to fout the law.

The best publicity any safe driving campaign can have is strict prosecution of offenders. It doesn't take long for word to get around, and the problem eases because drivers then are afraid to take a chance.

A List
Of Delegates
From UN

Jefferson High Gains Optimum
Integration Without Real Effort

By DON GRIERSON

At a time when schools throughout the nation are busily studying, redistricting, and taking similar drastic measures to achieve racial balance, one high school in Daly City has accomplished optimum integration without special effort.

A list of students at Jefferson High School reads like the United Nations delegate roster, yet every student is a resident of the geographical district immediately surrounding the school.

Approximately 10 per cent (174) of the school's 1,800 students are foreign born. Sixteen per cent come from Spanish-American families, 8.5 per cent are Negroes, and five per cent are Orientals.

Although most of the remaining school population is made up of students with Italian surnames, virtually every country in the world, and a number of American Indian tribes, are also represented to some degree.

Most of the Negro students are from families who have moved to Daly City from San Francisco in recent years, and thus are relative newcomers to the district, along with the youngsters from other countries.

The only deliberate program undertaken in connection with racial matters at the school is the district's efforts to obtain qualified teachers from minority groups, and the emphasis here is on the "qualified," according to district administrators.

The "melting pot" character of Jefferson High School is so complete that every racial group within the student body is in effect a "minority group."

"When a kid gains popularity or recognition here, he does it on his own merit," according to Ralph Galloway, a Negro educator who joined the Jefferson staff four years ago as director of activities.

"There is no one racial or ethnic group with sufficient numbers to dominate such things as school elections and social cliques," he said.

The thoroughly democratic nature of elections at the school is evident in the list of class officers for the current year. The ethnic background of the "favorites" at Jefferson High is as varied as that of the general school population.

Adoracion Tanchoco, a pre-ty girl of Oriental extraction, is the senior class president. The junior and sophomore class presidents, Dorothy Redmond and Madlyn Norman, are Negro girls, and the freshman president, Alice Fongaroli, came from an Italian family.

The student body president, Louie Matteucci, is also of Italian extraction.

What is the effect of the racial intermingling at Jefferson?

"Tremendous," according to Galloway.

"I've never seen a group of youngsters anywhere with more loyalty and school spirit. They do, of course, have their differences, but on occasions when outsiders have attempted to intrude, the kids here showed their loyalty to the Jefferson High School student body as a homogeneous group."

The only "racial incidents" at Jefferson have resulted largely from influences outside the school, and the student body, according to Galloway and Assistant Principal Rudy Trenton.

"We had some tense moments last year during the Hunters Point trouble," Trenton said, "and some instances of violence during a disturbance here four years ago."

In both these instances, gangs of roving teen-agers from outside the school district sparked most of the trouble, the administrators said.

"Most of the Negro families in Daly City moved here during the past few years, and many of the youngsters still have strong ties with their former associates in Hunters Point and other areas of the City," Galloway said.

"This has been a source of some minor difficulties here."

Whatever their minor differences, the rapport between children of diverse races at Jefferson is truly amazing to an observer unaccustomed to associating with the teen-agers.

It is something of a shock to hear Negro and Oriental youths jokingly comparing "black power" and "yellow power," and effectively bridging many of the barriers of prejudice created by the adult world.

"We believe a diploma from Jefferson High represents something more than completion of an academic program," Galloway said. "It also represents completion of a course in human relations."

Circle Star Theater's
Show Business Gamble

Just when Circle Star theater producers Sammy Lewis and Danny Dare were getting ready to celebrate the theater's third anniversary, Mickey Rooney cancelled out his show.

"Our anniversary date is October 13 since we broke ground in San Carlos and opened with 'My Fair Lady' in 1964. Mickey had been doing two shows a day besides directing in Las Vegas and he had to cancel 'Luv' here because of exhaustion," Lewis remarked during one of his infrequent visits to the Bay Area.

When asked how he determines what audiences will buy, he related, "who knows? It's a gamble. I couldn't have been more surprised at Jimmy Dean and the Lennon Sisters grossing more than $100,000 for eight performances. The celebrity attractions are the most successful and all new shows have been flops. It's really impossible to tell what will catch the public's interest until we've tried it first."

Most of their attractions play all three theaters owned by the corporation: Circle Star in San Carlos, the Carousel in West Covina and Melodyland in Anaheim. Some shows only play the Southern California houses. "South Pacific" has played once here and twice in the other two. "Sound of Music" has played twice in all three theaters and "Guys and Dolls" has played repeat performances in the south and only once here.

"Bay Area audiences are more sophisticated here than in Los Angeles," he added. "That's why an off-beat show like 'Marat-Sade' did well here. We'll bring it back next year with a new company."

Next year we can expect to see Liberace on Feb. 6 and maybe Danny Kaye for the first ten days of January, and Johnny Carson who made lots of money for himself at their other theater recently.

'Book of the Pacific'

Peter McIntyre's "Book of the Pacific" is a wonder to behold: fifty-six colored plates of Mr. McIntyre's paintings and an essay that presents the Pacific Isles as "the last great unspoiled area on this earth."

"Europe is worn and weary, overrun by the hordes of people in search of a culture and a grandeur that Europeans themselves are making tawdry and touristy — America is a nightmare of so-called progress; only the Pacific remains a place where man can live at peace with his surroundings."

Believing that the peaceful life of the Pacific Islanders will soon be gone, Mr. McIntyre determined to paint the color; the custom and the climate that he found as he traveled from Mexico to China and from Japan to Antarctica.

In Fiji he sought to capture the dignity of college girls in a society that is merging an old culture with that being imported from the Western world. His paintings from Fiji show lovely girls in tapa dresses with leaves and feathers in their brown hands.

"The sad dreaming faces of the women reflect the lonely life on the islands," he writes. Plate three entitled "Fiji Woman" pictures this mood.

In Tahiti McIntyre found an "incredibly handsome people" living in a culture that blends uninhibited joy with an echo of a fear that seems to have been present in the Tahiti of yesterday. This blending casts an "all-pervading sense of a dream world" over the land of Tahiti. The artist captures it in a painting entitled "Nets on a Tahitian Beach," and in several showing Moorea Bay, "the most fabulously beautiful island in the world."

Of the Mexican villages along the Pacific shore McIntyre writes, "..... this was the country I loved at sight. Nothing jarred. People and huts, rocks and animals melt into a vast pink and ochre mystery and the sky is washed pale by the heat." In his paintings of Mexico the artist records a people "simple in patient poverty" and rich in a mystic heritage.

In Japan, the artist found a land that has "embraced Western industrialization to a suicidal point of no return." Yet he found the remains of the Japanese culture and customs are an enthralling and exciting feast for Western eyes. His "Women in the Ricefield" seeks to capture the essence of Japan that lives in the customs of the gay and hearty rice farmers.

One of these customs is pictured in a painting of a Kabuki Lion Dance which is part of an intense and primitive dance.

No review of Peter McIntyre's book can relate the brilliance of his colors — or the intensity of feeling that he works into his painting. McIntyre is a social historian, a philosopher with a paint brush.

A reader who opens the Book of the Pacific and gazes at the paintings feels the same kind of pleasures that one experiences at the end of a journey through lands of unspoiled beauty.
